Volleyers win in Austin scrimmages

By CAROLYN BLOSSER

The women's volleyball team had a successful weekend of competition in Austin winning all of their scrimmages against the University of Texas, Incarnate Word and Texas Lutheran College.

The Aggies were totally dominating as they clobbered Texas (22-13, 25-9), Texas Lutheran College (20-9, 23-17) and Incarnate Word (19-5, 18-9).

The scrimmages did not count in the official standings, leaving the Ags' season record at 2-2.

Tonight the Aggies will travel to Waco for matches against Howard Payne College and Baylor University. The match-up against Baylor will be especially interesting since the Bearettes are boasting one of their strongest teams ever.

The women's tennis team did equally well in Houston weekend, defeating both Rice University of Houston in matches.

All of A&M's players competed both singles and doubles at the event, edged by U. of H. 9-6 before being out Rice 15-0.

The Aggies will see their competition in Beaumont on October 11 when they take on the varsity of Alabama.
