

gS Bagels transform to Bengals

Associated Press
CINCINNATI — The Cincinnati Bengals, who wined when out-of-towners mistakenly referred to them as bagels, bagels, and bingos during the club's early years, thought they were heading for nationwide humiliation Monday night.

"It was really embarrassing," said quarterback Ken Anderson, reliving a nightmarish first half against the Los Angeles Rams in a nationally-televised National Football League game.

"There were on national television with all the other players in the league watching, and I lead an explosive passing attack that gets five yards," said Anderson, who saw his receivers drop some on-target passes in a 2-for-12 start. But the Bengals, now 7-2, won new respect with a high-voltage turnabout that produced a 20-12 victory and talk of championship maturity.

"This is the first time we've played a good team and come from behind to win," said Anderson, who ignited a 2-point third quarter with touchdown passes of 30 and 17 yards to Bob Trumpy and Bobbie Clark, respectively.

"I think that's going to prove to be a good experience for us. With 11 rookies and two first-year players, it puts us back to a young club. This has to help."

The Bengals, bidding to snap Pittsburgh's two-year dominance of the AFC Central Division, kept their two-game lead over the Steelers with five games remaining.

"It was a must game for us," said Trumpy. "A loss would have put us in a precarious position." Now it appears the division title may come down to a Nov. 28 rematch with the Steelers, who started their four-game winning streak a month ago with a 23-6 trouncing of the Bengals.

Cincinnati, which has won 22 of its last 26 home games, flexed its newfound defensive muscle Monday to stun the Rams, who stand 6-2-1.
