Kicking the habit tough for some

United Press International
COLUMBUS, Ohio — A smoker's ability to kick the habit is related directly to the type of smoker he is and his personality, an Ohio State University behavioral scientist said Tuesday.

Assistant Professor Richard Russell said his study of the effectiveness of various antismoking programs showed that certain types of smokers are able to quit smoking and stay away from cigarettes more easily than others. Russell said the habitual smoker had the greatest difficulty kicking the habit, but once off cigarettes, he was more likely to stay off than smokers in the other categories. In contrast, the person whose smoking is related to frustration or anxiety was much more likely to resume the habit after the withdrawal program.

"If you don't give him some other means of coping with his anxiety he will go back to smoking," Russell said. Russell also said extroverted people are more carefree and optimistic and do not respond as well to conditioning techniques as do introverts. A withdrawal program followed by group support and interaction, would seem to be more effective for extroverts, he suggested.

Homecoming queen may be grandmother

United Press International
ORLANDO, Fla. — Rita Reutter, a 58-year-old grandmother, wants to give homecoming week at Florida Technological University a little "pizzazz" by running for homecoming queen.

Or, as she puts it: "You can have a little pie any time. Let's have something different."

Reutter, a graduate student, carries a canvas shopping bag with a sign saying "Hi! I'm Rita Reutter. Your next homecoming queen?"

Reutter dropped out of high school at 17 and went to work in a pocketbook factory. At 18, she married. Thirty-three years and four daughters later, she entered the University of New Haven in Connecticut.

She learned her bachelor's degree in business administration in 1976. She enrolled last fall at Florida Technological for the graduate program in guidance counseling.

The Duel is On...

First we were known for Texas catfish and Bar-B-Q. Now 3-C Corral has been redone...antique mirrors, a bank safe for a salad bar...all with soft lights and music. Will we be known for our food or our atmosphere? You could settle it... tonight.

Use peel-off label to receive tax refund faster

Taxpayers can receive their refunds faster by using the pre-addressed peel-off label on their returns, the Internal Revenue Service said. The label, which appears on the cover of the tax package mailed to taxpayers, lists name, address and social security number. The IRS emphasized that if any information on the label is incorrect, the taxpayer should make corrections right on the label.

Married taxpayers filing a joint return should check to see that two social security numbers appear on the label. If only one social security number is shown, the other spouse's number should be entered on the appropriate line.

BDU's Take All-U Volleyball Title

As the Fall semester closed last month, the finals of IM Volleyball action were taking place and we were unable to report the results, so we will do so now.

The All-University game was held on the Court in DeWare Fieldhouse with a large crowd looking on, even though it was in the middle of dead week. The competition was extremely fierce as both teams battled to be number one. It took five experienced officials to call the action and both teams played effectively and cleanly. In the first game, the Best Yet showed their stuff by defeating the BDU's 15-10. The BDU's rebounded, however, and thoroughly trounced the Best Yet in the second game, with a score of 15-1. In the third and deciding game of the match, both teams fought well but the BDU's finally triumphed and won the All-University championship with a score of 15-10.

In the Men's Class B Championships, the Amazings took the title by winning the first and third games, 15-6 and 15-5, allowing the Thermodynamics only the second 15-12 game. In Men's Class C action, the Ramones slammed the K-2 P-Heads, 15-7 and 15-1 to take the top honors.

Sq. 10, and Independent team, beat Dairy Palace, 15-5 and 15-4 to win the Women's Class A Division, while the Candy-A's beat the Applicators, 13-11 and 15-4 to take the Co-Rec title. Congratulations to all of these winners and to all those who participated in IM Volleyball this year.

Handball Doubles Are Open to All

Entries for IM Handball Doubles opened yesterday and will remain open until 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 1 at the IM Office, DeWare Fieldhouse. Play will begin on Monday, February 7 from 5:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. on the handball/racketball courts in DeWare Fieldhouse.

The competition will consist of a single elimination tournament with matches being the best 2 out of 3 games to 15. The first team to reach 15 will win and there need be no two point lead to win. The tournament will be governed under USHA Rules. A copy of these rules is available at the IM Office.

Courts for practice will be available when the tournament is not in progress, but it is best to reserve them by calling the IM Office at 845-2624 between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.,

Monday through Friday. There will once again be three classes of competition for this IM sport. Class A will consist of highly skilled, highly competitive teams vying for the All-University Title and All-University T-shirts will be awarded to the winners. Class B is comprised of moderately skilled, moderately competitive teams, while Class C is for teams who are just out for a good time, with less competition and less skill required. Participants in each of these Classes will be competing for Class Championships with IM Certificates awarded to the winners.

All entrants should check the flight sheets at DeWare on Thursday, February 3 for a beginning schedule. To enter and for any questions, come by the IM Office.

Individual (above) as well as team (below) efforts combined to create a winning solution for the BDU's as they defeated the Best Yet in the All-University Volleyball game last semester.

A sharp cut around an opponent is almost as important as a two point basket (below) in IM Basketball action.
