Cutting the tape

Students air problems, gripes through question-answer column

By MARK PENNY

Have you ever asked your roommate where to go for information about a really pertinent question and he just smiled at you?

Did you ever feel the University ripped you off and no one cared about it?

If so, then this column is for you.

"Cutting the Tape" is a feature designed to answer questions for which you, the students, can't find a satisfactory answer.

If someone at the University is giving you the run around, drop us a note and we'll do our best to get a straight answer.

Other local consumer problems will also be handled here. Your questions will make up the bulk of this feature.

Boxes will be placed in the library, the Memorial Student Center and the Commons for your inquiries. These boxes will be set up on Monday. Permanent locations have not yet been chosen, so please take a minute to look for them.

If you can't wait that long, you may drop your written inquiries by Reed McDonald 216.

Please include your name, address and telephone number with your questions. Only initials of the inquirers will be used in the column.
