Center to reduce operations

Texas A&M's University Center will reduce operations during the March 14-18 spring class break.

Most facilities will be open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. faculty-staff work days but will be closed Saturday and Sunday, March 12-13, and March 17-20.

Students begin the spring recess at 5 p.m. Friday. They resume classes Monday, March 21. Faculty and staff will observe March 17-18 holidays.

Most affected by students' departure will be the Memorial Student Center's arts and crafts and student programs areas, bookstore, browsing library and finance center.

Remaining in operation throughout spring recess are the Aggieland Station post office, MSC guest rooms and main desk and Visitors Information Center.

FRESHMEN

If you are a freshman interested in becoming involved in Texas A&M and its student programming, the Memorial Student Center Council and Directorate is opening applications for Council Assistantships. Council Assistants aid Council officers in the areas of administration, finance, programs, projects operations, and public relations.

Any freshman in any field of study that is interested in the above areas is urged to apply. Talented people are needed in all areas, so don't be afraid to drop this application by Room 216, Student Programs Office, MSC. Applications close Friday, March 11, 1977, at 5:00 p.m.
