

Runoffs and write-ins dominate student election

The following are the results of last week's student elections. Winners are in bold face type. Races that will be decided by a run-off are marked with a plus (+). Run-offs will be held this Thursday, April 14, 1977. Some of the names listed may not appear on the ballot since write-in candidates have the option to withdraw their names from consideration if they are eligible.
