

Maroon-White contest tomorrow will be the first teams against the of the squad in Saturday after- Maroon-White game that spring football drills at Texas M. The opening kick-off is scheduled 1:30 p.m. at Kyle Field. Admis- will be $3.00 for adults and $1.00 for high school age and younger. A&M students will be admitted on activity cards. All tickets will be sold Saturday and there will be no reserved seats. Fans can sit anywhere on a first-come, first-served basis. Only the upper east stands will be closed.

The defense has been the question mark so far this spring, with only three men returning from last year's nationally ranked team. Defensive coach Melvin Robertson seems confident in the squad he has chosen. "These guys are under a lot of pressure," coach Robertson said, "but I know that they are good and will come through for us." The first team defense will have Eddie Heath and Phil Bennett at ends, Johnnie Donahue and Steve Spitzenberger at tackles, Kevin Monk, Frankie Lemmons and Jimmy Kocurek at linebackers, Mike Williams, and Jimmy Hamilton at cornerbacks, and Carl Crulich and Kenneth Taylor at the safety positions.

Jerry Shannon is a back-up end, Garry Milligan is a reserve tackle and James Zachery a reserve linebacker.

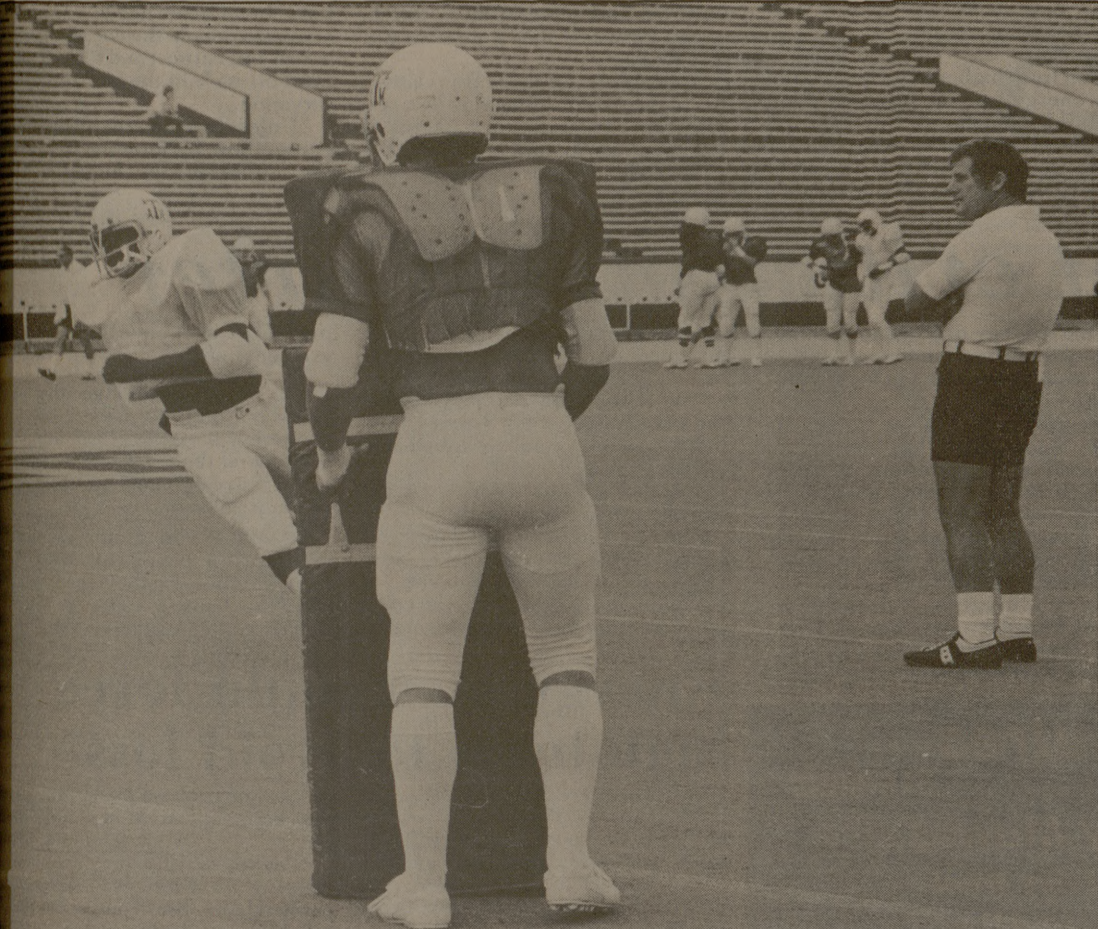

The offense has been superb this spring, with almost the entire squad returning from last year. The only problem area has been at the back-up quarterback slot, but C.J. White seems to have filled the roll nicely.

The first team offense will have Darrell Smith at split end, Russel Mikeka at tight end, Frank Myers and Cody Risen at tackles, Ed Pus-tejovsky and Thomas Gregory at guards, and Mark Dennard at center.

The nation's best backfield has David Walker at quarterback, Curtis Dickey and David Brothers at the halves, and George Woodard at fullback.

Doug Teague will be a back-up split end, Eddie Hardin a second fullback and Adger Armstrong a reserve halfback.

David Appleby will be the punter and Tony Franklin the place kicker. Everyone else will be on the white squad. Some of the players on that group will switch to the Maroon squad during the course of the after-noon.

Coach Emory Bellard scrutinizes his runningbacks in preparation for the Maroon-White game to be held this Saturday afternoon. Game time is 1:30 p.m., with admission being free for Texas A&M students with activity card.

Aggie lacrosse team defeats Longhorns, 7-6

Aggressive play in all phases of the game led the Aggie lacrosse team to a 7-6 victory over the Texas Longhorns.

Playing flawless lacrosse for three periods the Aggies built up a 7-2 lead before a fourth period let down allowed Texas to score four unanswered goals.

Kurt Schroeder lead the Aggies in scoring with two goals and two assists. Others in the scoring column included Ted Sauer with two goals and one assist, Chris Desadier with two goals, and Steve Emrick with one goal.

The Aggie defense also played well holding Texas scoreless on two occasions when down two men by the penalty route.

A&M has now completed play for the 1977 season, the most successful season in A&M lacrosse history. The club posted six victories and six defeats in Southwest Lacrosse League play, including five wins and three losses within the university division.

Log cager team travels to Brazil

United Press International FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — For my Counce and Sidney Monrief, Arkansas' basketball tour Brazil presents different oppor-tunities. Counce, a 6-7 junior forward, sees trip as a way of broadening his experiences. Monrief, a 6-4 sopho-more guard, wants to play against some of the best international players.

will play in the Governor's Cup at Sao Paulo and in an invitational tournament at Goiana.

"We haven't been given our exact schedule of games," coach Eddie Sutton said. "We could play as many as nine games but the schedules and tournaments could be changed al-most daily."

Sutton said he hopes to give freshmen Lawson Pilgrim, 6-5, and Alan Zahn, 6-6, a lot of playing time. He also plans to replace senior Steve Stroud in the starting line up with 6-11 sophomore Steve Schall.

The Razorbacks' probable starting lineup will be Monrief, Schall and Counce along with All-SWC juniors Marvin Delph and Ron Brewer.

no matter the main reason, both players are ready to go Sunday when Razorbacks depart as representa-tives of the Amateur Basketball As-sociation of the USA in three tour-naments in Brazil.

"I'm looking forward to the expe-rience of being in an entirely dif-ferent country," Counce said. "I'm going to see lots of sights. I speak English and the native language, Portuguese, is similar....Of course, basketball will be the main rea-son we will be there."

Monrief agrees with that. "If we had an opportunity to go and just see the sights, I don't know how I would go," he said.

"I'll take in a few sights and proba-bly spend some time on the beach. I'm going to play basketball. This is an important trip for our program. We will play some of the best inter-national teams in the world and with our rules."

Arkansas' first game will come April 27 in the City of Rio tourna-ment. The Razorbacks, who were 22-2 last season and won the South-west Conference championship, also
