Rockets defeat Bullets 107-103

United Press International Rudy Tomjanovich is a smooth and capable shooter, and last night the fourth quarter belonged to him.

With it went a 107-103 victory for the Houston Rockets, who evened their best-of-seven NBA playoff series with the Washington Bullets at two games each.

"I went one-on-one a lot tonight, which is something I don't normally do," said Tomjanovich, who finished with a team-high 28 points, hitting 12-of-23 shots from the floor.

With the score tied 92-92 in the final period, the 6-foot-8 Tomjanovich hit consecutive baskets with a sweeping hook from in close and a jumper from long range to put the Rockets up by four. A bucket by Moses Malone, who finished with 13 rebounds, with 4:40 remaining increased Houston's lead to six and virtually put the Bullets away.

The fifth game of this Eastern Conference semifinal series will resume Friday night at Houston.

"Anything can happen, but you have to go for our side now because we have two games left in front of our people," agreed Houston's Calvin Murphy, who, in a strong performance, scored 22 points.

With Houston apparently in control with a seven-point lead and just over two minutes left, a three-point play by Phil Henderson and Mitch Kupchak pulled the Bullets to within two.

A basket by Mike Newlin with 27 seconds to go eventually sealed it for the Rockets.

Chenier led all scorers with 29 points while Elvin Hayes added 23 for Washington. Malone added 17 points for the Rockets and Newlin 15.

In other NBA playoff games, Portland defeated Denver, 105-96, to take a 3-1 lead in their series and Golden State stopped Los Angeles, 114-103, to square their series at 2-2. Boston, tied 2-2 with the 76ers, plays at Philadelphia tonight.

Bob Gross scored 25 points to lead the Trail Blazers past the Nuggets in their Western Conference Semifinal series.

Gross had 12 of his points in the final period as the Blazers shook off a last-gasp rally by the Nuggets, who will host the fifth game Sunday.

In a strong defensive effort, Portland contained David Th... who finished with 16 points capitalized on an injured Da... who had 19 points.
