

Includes A&M versus Houston

ABC announces grid schedule

Texas A&M University and University of Houston are part of ABC-TV's fall sports line-up. This regional game, which some sports writers predict to become the Southwest Conference title game, will be telecast December 3. There is a possibility that an additional A&M game, against Michigan in Ann Arbor, may be telecast October 1. The chances of this TV appearance depends heavily on A&M's record during its three-week visitor's status at Kansas, Texas Tech and Michigan. The importance of the A&M-

Houston game is accented by Houston's victory at the Cotton Bowl as champion and A&M's defeat of Florida at the Sun Bowl. Both A&M and Houston had 10-2 records last year.

The rest of ABC's scheduled offerings for the fall include six national contests and 10 regional games, although there are still slots that ABC will fill as the football season progresses and the national leaders become apparent.

The ABC season starts with Notre Dame facing Pittsburgh, Sept. 10.

The following Monday, the Houston Cougars battle the UCLA Bruins on national television.

Traditional rivalries aren't overlooked in the line-up as Nov. 25 brings a national telecast of Nebraska at Oklahoma and a regional look at USC-UCLA. Not to let the Thanksgiving weekend go unfinished the Army-Navy game will enjoy national coverage.

This will be the 11th consecutive season that ABC has held exclusive rights to telecast NCAA football. The 13-week series will provide 20 games for each viewing market said Boone Arledge, ABC sports president. This does not include the inevitable broadcasts of Bowl games later in the year and early in 1978.

The Aggies have been featured 10 times on regional and national television in the last three years.

Ags sign prep quartermiler; add top schoolboy golfer

The Texas A&M Aggies have signed two standout athletes to letters of intent as recruiting for the spring sports continues. Coach Bob Ellis, named Golf Coach of the Year in the Southwest Conference, signed Jay Kent from Corpus Christi Carroll yesterday.

Thomas also signed Humble hurdler Billy Busch and Snook sprinter Leslie Kerr. Coach Bob Ellis, named Golf Coach of the Year in the Southwest Conference, signed Jay Kent from Corpus Christi Carroll yesterday.

Kent won four high school tournaments this spring and was a medalist in his district meet. He also represented Texas in the first annual Chevrolet Junior Championships in Orlando, Fla. last summer, finishing in the top 20.

Thurmond voted MVP of A&M baseball team

The 6-4, 170 lb. Williams will compete in the Chicago National High School track meet on June 9. He also played on South Oak Cliff's state title-winning basketball team and will try to make the Aggie basketball team as a walk-on.

Southwest Conference baseball champion Texas A&M named sophomore Mark Thurmond as the team's most valuable player for the 1977 season. Thurmond, a lefthander from Houston Spring Branch, had a 10-0 record for the regular season and at one point led the nation in wins and had the second best earned run average in the country with a 1.05.

Sophomore pitcher Mark Ross, who was 10-3 for the year, and first baseman-catcher Kyle Hawthorne, who hit for a seasonal average of .318 with eight home runs, each received the Wally Moon Award which annually goes to the most improved player or players. Leftfielder Robert Verde was named captain of the 1977 squad. The Aggies finished the season with a 37-16 record after being eliminated from the SWC post-season tournament and the NCAA Midwest Regional.

Williams' signatures brings the total to five the number of high school track athletes signing with Texas A&M.

Thurmond obtained a second quartermiler in Bryan's Vernon Pittman not long ago and signed one of the nation's best high school polevaulter, Randy Hall of Port Lavaca.
