NAIROBI, Kenya — Two of 16 Ugandans charged with plotting to overthrow President Idi Amin have been acquitted by a military tri-bunal, Radio Uganda said yester-

But the radio said the case against the 14 other prominent Ugandans was continuing

The Ugandans acquitted on charges of treason were Apolo Lawoko, former controller of programs at Radio Uganda and Edward Odria, a teacher

The tribunal threw out the cases against them when they heard that Lawoko joined the plot after being threatened with death if he didn't oin and that Odria had tipped off uthorities about the plan.

MARION, Ill. — Three prisoners at the U.S. Penitentiary say they are married. Acting Warden Donald Frey says they are not.

Frey confiscated the prisoners wedding rings and sent them back to the three women involved in the proxy marriage, staged without permission from Frey and Bureau of Prisons officials

Because of the dispute, the men were charged last week with circumventing prison policy and dis-turbing the orderly running of the institution. Frey suspended their visiting privileges for 90 days, but then reinstated them. The prisoners, Frank W. Scott, 33; Allen H. Formby, 33, and Ezequiel Navarro, 32, were in jail
