

Kansas is inexperienced

Mike Williams (No. 10) will be a key figure this Saturday when the Aggies play host to Kansas. The senior cornerback will be facing a wishbone attack, yet one which will pass on any given down. Kick-off is at 4 p.m.

Saturday afternoon the Kansas Jayhawks will embark upon one of the toughest schedules in college football.

After playing the Texas Aggies, Kansas travels to UCLA, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, and Nebraska. The Jayhawks also play host to Colorado.

"I don't think there is any question that it is one of the toughest in the country," coach Bud Moore said about his upcoming season. "It is not just a matter of who we are playing either. The distance we have to travel can also take its toll."

The tough schedule is not Kansas' only problem this year. The 1977 Jayhawks will be one of the most inexperienced teams that Kansas has ever fielded. The defensive secondary is a special worry of Moore's.

"There is no doubt about it," Moore, one time Aggie offensive coordinator said. "We are a young team. We lost several players from a year ago who had three and four years playing experience."

"We will be replacing them with people who have had little, and in most cases, no experience."

Kansas should not be taken too lightly. The Jayhawks of a year ago were the fourth best rushing team in the nation.

Returning from that team will be eight offensive and ten defensive lettermen.

Senior halfback Bill Campfield will be the Aggie defense's major concern. Campfield, is thought by some sports writers to be one of the best blocking halfbacks in the Big Eight.

Campfield will be taking hand-offs from junior quarterback Mark Vicendese. Vicendese, who was red-shirted until the last three games of the season, is the team's fifth best ground gainer.

"There is no doubt that Mark has

Practice slow for Bulldogs

United Press International

ATHENS, Ga. — Georgia Coach Vince Dooley was unhappy after watching the Bulldogs practice Tuesday, four days away from their season opener against Oregon.

"There were a lot of mental errors out there today and a lot of missed assignments," said Dooley who put the team through a 1½ hour session.

The remainder of the week will be spent going over individual assignments and play recognition in preparation for Saturday's game, he said.

a chance to become a good quarterback," Moore said. "He, like all of our other quarterbacks, has considerable improvements to make."

"I think we do have some promise at quarterback, but we are very young and inexperienced. For that very reason we can't expect too much too soon."
