Alien flow would be controlled

Bentsen proposes plan

United Press International
HOUSTON — Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Tex., has called for a $2 billion development fund between the United States and Mexico to solve the problem of illegal aliens. Bentsen said the fund would create additional job opportunities in Mexico.

"People come to this country to work, he said Sunday. They will be less likely to come here if they find a job at home that pays a decent wage. We have a vital national interest in a stable, prosperous, democratic Mexico, well-disposed toward the United States of America. There is no issue more difficult, more fundamental to the future of our relationship with Mexico than the dilemma of illegal alien and undocumented workers."

Bentsen made the remarks at a ceremony celebrating the 50th anniversary of the University of Texas.

Bentsen said that under his proposal project financing would be on a 50-50 basis with the fund paying half the money at reduced rates over long terms, and private lending institutions funding at commercial rates and terms.

"We can't put up walls and not end the problem of illegal migration overnight," Bentsen said.

VA benefits can include tutor costs

The 1,400 veterans of Texas A&M University, like their counterparts nationwide, may receive a month reimbursement for tuition under Veterans Administration guidelines.

The total tutor allowance for an eran may go as high as $750, which is deducted from regular Bill benefits.

Campus VA liaison officials veterans may apply for such assistance if they are attending class at least half time and have a degree in a required subject.

Applications should be made to the VA regional office in Waco. Veterans must apply within a year of the time they received the tuition request must be certified by Texas A&M and the tutor.
