

Record now 7-3

Ags defeat Mustangs 11-7

Inexperience is not affecting the Texas A&M water polo team too much. The Aggies raised their seasonal record to 7-3 by defeating the SMU Mustangs 11-7.

"We played as a team much better than any game so far," coach Dennis Fosdick said. "Our offense was a little weak at times, but the guys did do a good job."

The leading scorers for the Ags were co-captains Steve Sampson and Bob Leland with three points each. Greg Meek and Scott Harris each had two goals, while Mike Newsome rounded out the scoring with one goal.

"Leland and Meek played real well," Fosdick said. "Meek is just getting used to playing where he is supposed to. The Mustangs are our toughest competition in Texas. They have a real strong ball club. They will be tough when we play them here."

The second toughest competitor for the Aggies was the SMU swimming pool. "The water was extremely cold," Fosdick said. "We think it was about 75 degrees, and that is very cold for polo. Our pool will be a lot more pleasant for them."

The Ags have the rest of the week off, while the women's water polo team opens its season in San Antonio this weekend. The tournament will be held at Alamo Heights High School.

Sailing team takes third place at Tulane

The Texas A&M sailing team returned home from the Tulane Invitational Regatta with a third place trophy. The tournament was held on Lake Ponchartrain in New Orleans.

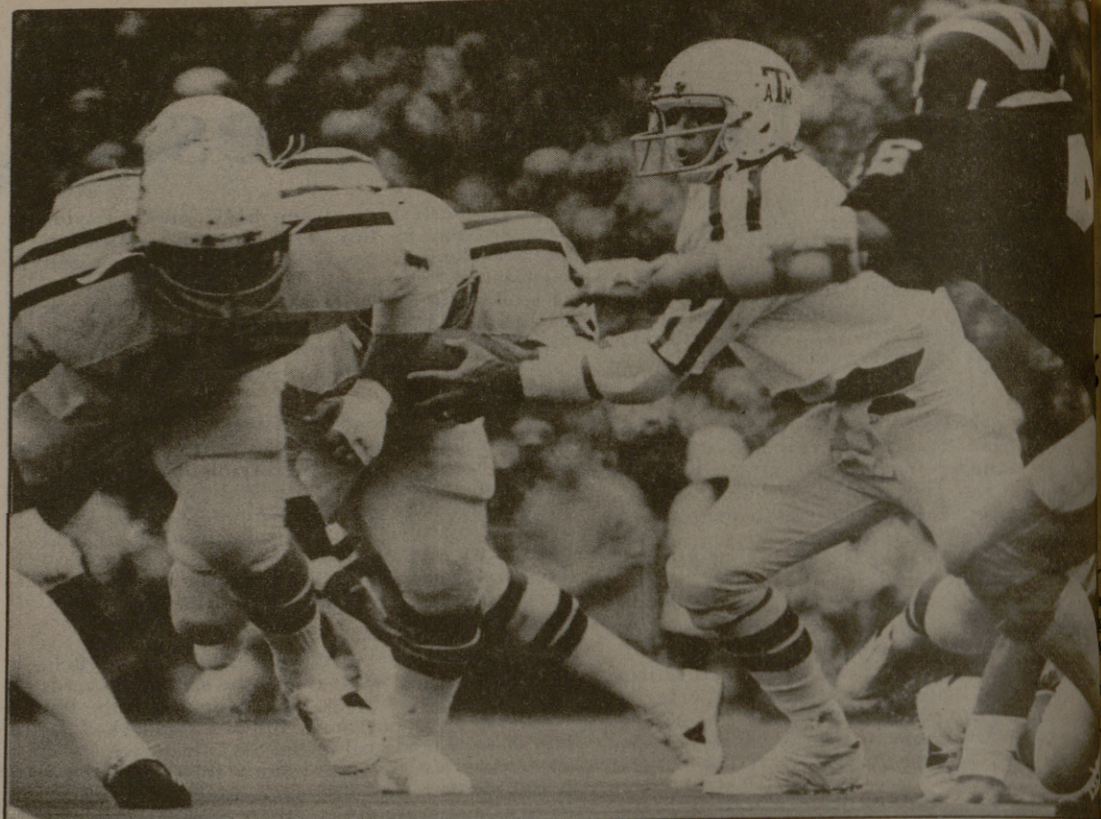

The Aggies defeated the other sailing teams from the southwest. The regatta, sponsored by Southeast Interscholastic Sailing Association, was won by Tulane University.

Florida State finished second, with the Aggies finishing a close third. The Ags were followed by Texas and Baylor. Rice and the University of Dallas did not show.

Skippering for A&M was Kevin Fuller and Greg Schertz. Terry Gough, Julann Chiles and Bill Wightman were their crews.

Fuller and Schertz combined their scores from ten races. The Aggie duo raced on Olympic Gold Cup courses. The winds were clocked at 15 knots.

A&M coach Randy Davis was pleased with his team's performance. The Aggies regatta will be the SEISA Sloop Eliminations, sailed in Solings. It will be hosted by Rice and Texas.

David Walker (No. 8) hands off to George Woodard. Woodard gained 153 yards on 39 carries against Michigan. No game is scheduled this week, but the Ags travel to Waco next week to play the Baylor Bears.
