

Longhorns at the top

United Press International
Consider these little tidbits. Oklahoma turned the ball over only once all day — the Sooners had lost 18 fumbles in their first four games. Texas had to go with its third-string quarterback almost the entire game, a journeyman who has never lettered and never played a down before this season. Only two plays deep in the game Oklahoma owned the ball on Texas 14 with a first down. And Oklahoma outtrashed Texas for the afternoon. Add all of that up and the obvious winner would have to be the Oklahoma — right? Not in this script. In this version, the third-string quarterback — a thus far anonymous fellow who turns out to be Randy McEachren from the Houston suburb of Pasadena — leads Texas on the only touchdown drive of the game, the Longhorns' defense plays like the Great Wall of China, Earl Campbell bounces off people for valuable chunks of yardage and Russell Erxleben kicks the ball from here to way over there on two long field goals and a couple of critical punts of 71 and 69 yards. And that totals up to Texas' first win over Oklahoma since 1970, a 13-6 thriller before a typical Cotton Bowl sellout crowd that puts the Longhorns back among the national powerhouses. "That is something you might find in a story book," said Fred Akers, who in his first year as Texas coach succeeding Darrell Royal has his team unbeaten (4-0) and bidding for a national title. "Randy did a great job. He was smart, poised and cool. And the team supported him. I'm proud of this team. Our defense played super, and if someone is going to have to stand up in a hurry if they are going to beat Earl Campbell for the Heisman Trophy." The ending of Oklahoma's recent domination of the Longhorns-Sooners war easily highlighted the weekend of Southwest Conference action. It even overshadowed the ending of the longest major college losing streak. TCU (1-4) halted its skid at 15 games with a 35-15 win over Rice (1-4). But, just to show they are not ready for the top ten, the Horned Frogs committed an NCAA record 22 penalties. "I wanted to play a lot of kids," said TCU coach F.A. Dry. "Some of them had not won since they had been here." Baylor (2-3) won the other conference game on the schedule, outkicking SMU (2-3) in a field goal battle, 9-6, and out west Saturday night Texas Tech linebacker Mike Mock intercepted a pass in the end zone with 37 seconds left to preserve a 33-26 win over Arizona. Texas' first two quarterbacks went out in a hurry Saturday — Mark McBath with a sprained ankle that was to be examined Sunday and Jon Aune with a ligament tear that will probably keep him out for the season. That left it to McEachren, who in his third possession guided Texas on an 80-yard march — the only touchdown drive of the day. Campbell scored on a 24-yard run and Erxleben — who owns the NCAA field goal distance record of 67 yards — kicked field goals of 64 and 55 yards. And the Longhorns defense stopped the Sooners on fourth-and-one at the Texas five with less than four minutes to play. But now Texas must resume conference play and the Longhorns first foe will be the ninth-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks (also 4-0) in Fayetteville. Texas A&M and Houston share the league lead with Texas and Arkansas at 1-0 and this week A&M returns to action at Baylor and Houston will be at home against SMU. Texas Tech hosts Rice while TCU will celebrate its victory with a week off.

Dallas remains undefeated

United Press International
ST. LOUIS — A pair of pass interference calls on St. Louis cornerback Lee Nelson set up two Dallas touchdowns in the fourth quarter Sunday to give the unbeaten Cowboys a 30-24 victory over the Cardinals.

Dallas took the lead for the first time in the game when Roger Staubach hit Golden Richards with a 17-yard scoring toss with about seven minutes left to play. Nelson earlier was called for pass interference while covering Drew Pearson, resulting in a 41-yard pickup to the St. Louis 12. Dallas then pulled to within a point on a one-yard dive by Tony Dorsett with 13 minutes remaining. The tally was set up by a pass interference call on Nelson, who pushed Pearson in the end zone for a 42-yard gain for Dallas. Dallas defenders Cliff Harris and Charlie Waters intercepted passes to blunt Cardinal scoring threats later in the game.

Defensive tackle Charlie Davis had scooped up a Staubach fumble and rambled 35 yards for a touchdown to give St. Louis a 24-16 lead late in the third quarter. Defensive end John Zook belted Staubach from behind on a pass play, jarring the ball loose. Effren Herrera kicked a 44-yard field goal 10 minutes into the second half to cut the Cardinal lead to 17-16.

Staubach finished with 18 completions in 29 attempts for 153 yards, while Jim Hart was 9 for 33 for 186 yards. Dorsett led all rushers with 140 yards in 14 carries, most of it picked up on a 77-yard touchdown run. Herrera's 40-yard field goal with 1:23 left in the first half brought Dallas to within 17-13 and climaxed quarters of big plays. Early in the second quarter, Gray beat Cowboys cornerback Renfro in a race down the sideline and hauled in a 60-yard scoring pass from Hart to give St. Louis a 17-10 lead. St. Louis speedster Terry Metcalf and Dorsett turned in impressive runs earlier in the half. With the score tied 3-3, Metcalf broke through the middle of the Dallas line on a third-and-one situation and raced 62 yards to give St. Louis a 10-3 lead, with 40 seconds remaining in the opening quarter. About five minutes later, Dorsett took the ball on a firstdown pounced through the Cardinal secondary and set a Dallas club record with a 77-yard touchdown. The teams traded field goals the first quarter. Jim Bakken booted a 32-yarder for St. Louis and Herrera tied it with a 29-yarder as Waters blocked a St. Louis punt. Dallas took over on the Cardinal 11. Dallas now is 4-0 while St. Louis is 1-3.

Punt, Pass and Kick

Entries for Punt, Pass, and Kick competition will close October 11. The format for the contest is based on the Ford PP&K contest. Rules may be picked up from the IM Office.

Volleyball Team Managers' Meeting

A mandatory team managers' meeting will be held October 13 on the second floor of the Rudder Theater at 5:15 p.m. Teams not represented will be dropped.

Field Goal Contest

Field Goal Kicking entries will close Tuesday, October 11. Participants must furnish their own kicking tee. Sign up for the competition in the IM Office.

Badminton

Rules clarification: reschedules will be allowed for games but no substitutes are permitted. If a game is to be rescheduled, Pat Keller of the IM Office, must be contacted at least 48 hours in advance. Badminton is an open competition sport (no points allowed for Corps or dorms).

Team Closings

Volleyball
Volleyball entries will close October 11 at 5:00 p.m. The divisions will be separated as in the other major sports and Co-Rec will consist of three men and three women teams. The competition will be class AB, BC, and Jungle. Jungle is the term used to describe the semi-civilized form of volleyball played with a very loose interpretation of the rules (Oh Boy!).

Swim Meet
October 11 marks the closing date for entries in the Intramural Swim Meet. Competition will be broken into the standard divisions and also a masters class (over 35 years of age) and only one class of competition (A). Awards will be in the form of IM T-shirts.

Men's Handball

Out of 248 entries in the handball competition, only two were women. Rene Dabysshire and Gwyn Miller from Krueger Hall were the only women that chose to brave the hazards of the handball court. The single elimination competition started October 3. A new forfeit rule has been instituted: there will be a 10-minute "grace period" after the scheduled play time. The person who wins by forfeit has the option of accepting the forfeit or permitting the late challenger to play; starting with one automatic loss. The challenger must therefore win all that remains of the match (one game and the 11 point tie breaker).

The intramural bowling competition got underway last Monday. There were a total of 327 participants entered with 38 women's teams, 55 men's teams, and 22 Co-Rec teams. The men's and women's teams have three members each and the Co-Rec teams are comprised of a male and female participant. All bowling is scored on a scratch basis (no handicap) and a single game team total. When quarter-finals begin, the scores will be from a three-game team total. The competition will run most of the semester.
