Aggs ready for Bears

By MARK PATTERSON
After a two week vacation from Southwest Conference play the Aggies return to action Saturday to face the Baylor Bears in Waco. Kick-off is at 4 p.m.
Lead by all-America candidate Ron Burns at strong safety, the Bears have compiled a 2-3 overall record and stand 1-2 in Southwest conference play.
Baylor is coming off of a hard fought 9-6 victory over SMU Saturday night. Though the Bears needed the win, the victory was costly as the Sammy Bickham, the Bear's number one quarterback, suffered a strained knee and is listed as a doubtful starter for the A&M game.
Bickham's backup is sophomore

Greg Wood. Wood went into spring training as the Bears number one quarterback, because Bickham sat out spring drills to pitch on the baseball team. But Wood will get his chance Saturday if Bickham's knee prevents him from seeing action.
Saturday's game marks the seventy-fourth meeting between the two schools. The Aggies hold an overall advantage in the series with 43 wins against 23 losses with 7 ties. One of the Aggie wins came last year when the Aggies shut out the Bears 24-0. The game belonged to Tony Franklin as he kicked a 64-yard field goal and his record-breaking 65-yard field goal to lead the Aggies to the victory.

Six players off the 1976 Baylor team were taken in the pro draft, all being chosen in the first eight rounds. Among those being selected were all-American defensive back Gary Green, chosen in the first round by Kansas City, offensive tackle Gary Gregory, chosen in the fifth round by the New York Jets, and running back Cleve Franklin, chosen in the eighth round by Philadelphia.
The Bears have nine starters returning from last year's 7-3-1 team. Five defensive starters return led by Burns, chosen All-Southwest Conference last year, and Scooter Reed, a three year letterman at corner back. Inside, Gary Hutchison, a two year letterman at left tackle, solidifies the defensive line.
On offense, the line is anchored by right guard Jon Kramer, a three year letterman who head coach Grant Teaff says, "is the best offensive lineman I've seen in four years of coaching post-season all-star games."
Complimented on the outside by split end Tommy Davidson and tight end Bonnie Lee, both two year letterman, the Bears have the potential for an explosive and exciting offense for Saturday's game.

It is customary for the Baylor-A&M game to be played in the rain. Two years ago Lester Hayes pick-pocketed a Baylor running back and returned the ball for a touchdown. The game with the Bears is at 4 p.m. this Saturday in Waco.

"QUALITY FIRST"

THE DEAN OF BEER SUGGESTS ALL STUDENTS IMPROVE THEIR READING, WRITING, AND PUNTING.

Fellow Beer Persons, life is full of problems. Fortunately, as your Dean of Beer, I am full of answers. For example, many problems can be avoided with good reading skills. Such as "Danger, Wild Boar Ahead."

Many others can be avoided through good writing skills. Such as "Dear Mom, Send Cash." However, some problems require more. Some problems require special attention. Such as "Good evening, Officer. What can I do for you?"

That is why, in addition to the fine arts of reading and writing, I recommend you master the fine art of punting. Preferably with either foot. That is also why I am offering $5.00 off the suggested retail price of an official, intercollegiate-quality Wilson football, with the Schlitz emblem. So you can practice. (Besides, no one would be interested if I offered $5.00 off on lip balm.) Class dismissed.
