Texas prison rodeo exciting

The 46th annual Texas Prison Rodeo offers visitors plenty of action. Cowboy convicts and women inmates compete for prize money and the title of Top Hand and All-Round cowgirl. When the prisoners are not dodging bulls or trying to saddle wild horses, they can be seen checking their gear or taking a cigarette break between rides. The rodeo begins each Sunday at 2 p.m. in Huntsville, 60 miles east of Bryan-College Station.
