Students chosen To 'Who's Who'

Texas A&M University will have 56 students in the 1977-78 listing of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities."

Graduating seniors and graduate students selected to the annual directory were announced by Dr. John Koldus, vice president for student services.

"To be selected to 'Who's Who' is one of the highest honors accorded our students," Koldus said.

Selection and certification by "Who's Who" editors is based on academic achievement, extracurricular activities leadership, campus-community contributions and potential. Nominations are limited to graduating seniors with a minimum 2.5 grade point ration and graduate students with at least a 3.5 GPR.

Honorees will be recognized at a spring semester reception, Koldus said. Framed certificates will be presented. The Association of Former Students assists in presentations.

Chosen to the 1977-78 "Who's Who" are James Aitken, Vicki Benton, Rodney Boehm, Laurence Boyd, Larry Briggs, Victoria Brown, Geraldine Campbell, George Cantrell, Roy Carter, Daniel Clader, Robert Cook, Richard David, Cynthia Davis, Kenneth Donnelly, Joseph Farmer, Sarah Ferry, Stephanie Forrest, Michael Gentry, Mary Jane Greer, James Gregson, Also, Joseph Hamilton, Stephen

What Some Women College Graduates are Wearing

As a woman Air Force ROTC student, you compete for your commission on the same footing as the men in your class. And later on you wear the same insignia. There are two-year, three-year, and four-year scholarship programs available to help you get there. If you enroll in the four-year Air Force ROTC program you also qualify to compete for a scholarship for the remaining two or three years as a cadet. Tuition is covered, fees are paid, textbook costs reimbursed... plus $100 a month, tax free.
