"Both Ham and Earl were great," said Akers. "They were really going after Earl, but he still got a lot of yardage. Some of it was by himself.

"My moral is really hurt, especially losing the game like we did," said SMU tailback Arthur Whittington. "We thought we had them. We were up at halftime, but they just came out and took the game away from us in the second half."

Whittington was held to 38-yards rushing in the game, but added 118-yards in five catches in the receiving department.

"I thought in order for us to win we would have to score two more touchdowns in the second half," said Whittington. "But the offense just didn't produce. We didn't have the time to throw the ball in the second half like we did in the first half. They (A&M) just put more people on us in their pass rush and it shut we down."

The view wasn't much brighter from the other side of the SMU squad after the game.

'A&M just ground out a victory, that's all there is to it," said Putt Choat, SMU linebacker. "They just kept people coming at us the whole game. We ran out of people to stop

But he added to SMU's scoring in the first half by intercepting a David Walker pass and returning it 34-yards for the first SMU touchdown.

'Since this was my first start I just wanted to impress the coaches with my play. When he (Darrell Smith) my play. When he (Darrell Smith) went out for the pass, I just looked up and saw the ball. I just reacted and went for it. When I caught the ball I just headed for the goal-line. "And that was my first college touchdown," added Simmons.

SMU head coach Ron Meyer felt the key to Saturday's game was the the key to Saturday's game was the injuries sustained by his ball club.

"A&M is a very physical football team. Our injuries really showed up in the second half. That was the key to the game. When you lose your main guys on defense, your two cocaptains (Choat and Champ Dickerson), and you replace them with freshmen, it takes the guts out of your ball club. Our freshman played well but A&M was just too physical.
"I know that Emory (Bellard) didn't run up the score on us. On that final drive that Mosley scored on, we had four cheap penalties. Our freshmen were taking cheap shots out there and you can't win and shouldn't win with plays like that. I apologize to A&M for their
