Health center compares to Texas, Rice universities

By MARGIE KOVAR

Chicken soup and mother's care may be the best cure for a cold, but university students often have to settle for the services of the student health center.

Five full-time doctors take care of the 400 to 500 students who come to the Texas A&M University health center daily. These students need no appointments to see a doctor and are seen on a first-come-first-serve basis.

"There are not enough doctors for us to take appointments," said Dr. Claude Goswick, director of A&M's A. P. Beutel Health Center. "There is always a chance that a student would break their appointment and not call to tell us."

"Meanwhile, the doctor would be waiting for the student when he could be seeing other patients."

But at the University of Texas in Austin, students need an appointment to see a doctor.

"When they come to us without an appointment, we send them to the urgent care room," said John Wilson, university health center administrator.

There, nurses decide the seriousness of the patient's condition.

"If their problem isn't that urgent, they are given an appointment for the next day," Wilson said.

At Rice University in Houston, students need no appointments to see either of the two full-time nurses on staff at the health center, but do need one to see the doctor who is at the center on a part-time basis.

"Our facilities are limited," said Dollie Fullen, one of the nurses. "But since we are so close to the

SENIOR RING ORDERING PROCEDURE
For Students Completing 92 Hours at the End of the Fall 77 Semester
To be eligible to order the Texas A&M Senior Class Ring, an undergraduate student must have at least ninety-two (92) semester hours, with 30 hours at A&M and be in good standing with the University. To order at mid-semester using mid-semester grades to fulfill the above requirements, please note the following instructions:
1. Leave your name, major and L.D. number with the Ring Clerk, Room Seven, Richard Coke Building, prior to November 10th. THIS MAY NOT BE DONE BY PHONE.
2. Bring mid-semester grade report along when ready to order to verify eligibility.
3. All rings must be paid for in full when the order is placed. Senior Ring loans are available through student financial aid in the YMCA Building.
4. Anyone having failed to leave their name in advance and fail to bring their mid-semester grade report when ready to order will be asked to return later to allow time for records to be checked.
5. Mid-semester orders will be taken only from October 26th until November 30th, 1977.
6. Students who do not place their order during this period may order after final grades are posted.
7. The Ring Clerk is on duty from 8 A.M. to 5 P.M. each day, Monday through Friday. However, in order for other duties to be carried out, absolutely no orders will be taken between 11:30 A.M. - 1:30 P.M. or between 4:00 - 5:00 p.m.
8. All rings ordered, regardless of whether on October 26th or November 30th, will be delivered on the same day which will be approximately January 31, 1978.
(This November 30th ordering deadline does not apply to those students who completed 92 hours prior to the beginning of the Fall 77 semester. After a student has 92 hours on record there is never a dead-line, except a monthly mailing date on which we send ring orders to the factory.) 34130
