

Now a profession

Atmosphere changed

Continued from Old-style, page 6) seen expanded into wooden cabinets with marble tops. But perhaps the most striking difference is in the atmosphere. The

In the new salons, conversation is minimal. A quick assessment of last week's game, a brief how're your kids or how's school, and the conversation ends.

Barbering has become more of a profession.

On an average day at the City Barber Shop, 10 to 12 men wander in not for a haircut, but to find out the day's news, Cole said.

"You find out more news from your barber shop that you do from the local paper," one patron said.

Men saunter in and out of the shop. There is no rush to leave. There are no magazines in the shop. They don't go there to read.

In the new salons, conversation is minimal. A quick assessment of last week's game, a brief how're your kids or how's school, and the conversation ends.

Groce also said that 85 percent of his customers are regulars. However, he has become friends with most of his customers when they come in for appointments. Most of his regulars were strangers in the beginning.

Occasionally, someone will wander in without wanting his hair styled, Groce said, but then its usually to buy a bottle of conditioner or hair spray.

The price is another characteristic that distinguishes the barber shop from the style shop. The range of

They come in with little hair to worry about to begin with and leave with even less."

prices for barber shop haircuts in Bryan-College Station is from $2.75 to $5.50. For hair styling the range is from $8 to $15.

Change in hair lengths for men has created the merging of men's and women's hairstyling shops.

"You wouldn't believe it but men are just as particular if not more so than women about the way their hair looks," Groce said.

But in the barber shop that's not the way it works, Cole said. "They come in with little hair to worry about to begin with and leave with even less."

Battalion photo by Dick Wells

The Mop Shop in College Station caters to mostly college students in the 18-21 age bracket, and is in the fashion of the newer salons for men that began springing up in College Station about five years ago.

MUSIC MAN the music booth SUNN
779-3988 Bryan GIBSON 3202-A TEXAS AVE. "Your Guitar Specialist" TAKAMINE

Battalion photo by Dick Wells

The Mop Shop in College Station offers the atmosphere of the newer salons in the city, where tonic and hot combs have been replaced by hair spray, conditioner and hand-held blow dryers.

Petal Patch
COMPLETE FLORIST
FLOWERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS
707 TEXAS 846-6713

We accept your personal check and also honor:
Ford RENT-A-CAR
FORD RENT-A-CAR SYSTEM
bf beal ford
1309 Texas Ave., Bryan, Texas • 823-0044

Samson & Delilah
PROFESSIONAL HAIR DESIGN
1510 Holleman College Station 693-1772
George Ann Hoke, Judy Fondy, Kathy Grimes, Vickie Matthews, Judy McCann. (not pictured: Jane Kroll)

Episcopal Student Center
902 Jersey (adjacent to southside of campus) 846-1726
Tuesdays, 5:30 p.m.: Eucharist & Supper
Wednesdays 12 noon Bible Study
Fridays, 6:30 a.m.: Eucharist & Breakfast
Sundays, 6:30 p.m.: Fellowship & Eucharist
Fr. James Moore, Chaplain

They're Here!
From Germany & Europe:
• Christmas Ornaments
• Nutcrackers • Pyramids
• The famous Effanbee dolls (since 1910) & other collector dolls
• Creche [Nativity] Sets
• Advent calendars
• and other gifts from all over the world
Happy Cottage
(across from Luby's)

FLAUNT IT!
PEACE CORPS & VISTA ON CAMPUS Dec. 5,6,7
SIGN UP NOW FOR YOUR INTERVIEW
Placement Office: Rudder Tower 10th Fl. Information Booth: Student Center

McDonald's INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

"I SPY'S" PARTICIPANT OF THE WEEK
Shown here is Mahran Hofezioeh, of K-2, working the soccer ball around his opponents from Sq. 6. Both Corp teams are in class B competition.

"Have Turkey Will Trot"

The Turkey trot will be Thanksgiving morning at 8:00. The locker room in G. Rollie White will be open at 7:00 a.m. It is a run-walk around the golf course and a Family Event. Everyone will receive a certificate. Come join the flock of Turkeys on Thanksgiving morning.

Final Points . . . Birdie Watchers Competition

Badminton finals are completed except for men's doubles. There were 164 entries in this year's competition (a record high). Charles Emly was the winner of the men's Class A singles competi-

IM SPORT SHORTS
Oops!

Several winners were cut off of our tennis finals article. Edie Snow of Mosher won the women's Tennis Singles Class B All-University title and Kathleen McDermott, also of Mosher, won the women's Class C All-University title.

Shorts
The winners of All-University Class A Championships may drop by the IM Office to pick up their t-shirts. Class B and C All-University Champions need to check in several weeks to see if their shirts are in yet.

Job Availability
The journalist position for this McDonald's page will soon be open for anyone interested in writing sports articles and coordinating photography for intramural activities. Persons interested, should contact Pat Keller at the IM Office as soon as possible (845-7826).

Holiday Hours
The Intramural Office will close at 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 23, before Thanksgiving vacation and open Monday, November 28, at 8:00 a.m.

Facilities Hours Changes
November 23
Regular Hours
November 24
DeWare Fieldhouse
Building open 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 a.m.
Check Out open 10:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Weight Room 3:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.
G. Rollie White CLOSED
November 25
DeWare Fieldhouse
Building open 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 a.m.
Check Out open 10:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Weight Room 3:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.
G. Rollie White 2:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Table Tennis Turnout

Ping Pong competition looks good, and the interest by participants has been excellent. The tournament has been smooth and competitors have done an excellent job of keeping up with games and times.

Handball Final

There were 250 participants in the singles handball competition this year. Jeff Bronson (Ind.) won the men's Class A All-University handball singles for the second consecutive year. Kirk Hall (Astton) was the Class B champ. Bill Schlaster (Davis-Cary) won the Class C competition.

The single elimination tournament was held at DeWare Fieldhouse over a period of several weeks. There was also a decrease in the women participating in handball this year.

Acknowledgments

This ad is sponsored by McDonald's on University Drive and under the direction of the IM Office. Stories are by Larry Parker and photos are by Corey Gaskill.

Ref's Corner
No officials meetings Thursday. Happy Thanksgiving!

Basketball Officials Needed
Anyone interested in applying for an official's position should come by the IM Office and see James Welford. Basketball clinics will be held before Christmas break. Veteran officials are asked to report as soon as possible.

Basketball Clinic
Initial meeting to be held December 5 in Rudder Tower, room 410 at 7:00 p.m. The succeeding clinic sessions will be December 6, 7, and 8 in G. Rollie White Coliseum room 267 at 7:00 p.m. People must attend all meetings to be scheduled for games.

The flight of the ping pong ball holds the attention of Rick Smitherman and Don Greer as they concentrate on winning their doubles match. Rick and Don are representing Hotard dorm in class B.