

Woodard

Hamilton

Aggie notes.

George Woodard and Curtis Dickey are nearing 1,000 yards rushing and if they make it they'll beome only the 8th combo in the NCAA history to do 0. Woodard needs only 31 more yards for 1,000 while Dickey needs 104 in the final two games....
A&M's 606 rushing yards against TCU leads in the nation this year in that category.... A&M's 687 yards of total offense against TCU set a SWC mark, beating Texas' output against SMU in 1969 by 11 yards... Thus far this year, A&M has set 9 school offensive records and tied one and has a shot at reaking 10 more.

Tight end Chuck Carr and CB Jimmy Hamilton injured knees in the TCU win and are doubtful for he Texas game. QB David Walker rested bruised ibs last Saturday but will be ready for Texas. Coach Emory Bellard: "I was happy that we finally got a chance to get some of the younger players in the ball game (at TCU). Mike Mosley did an excellent job (at QB) for the first time out. I thought David Beal was Against TCU, Woodard rushed for 163 yards Dickey got 175 and Mosley 98. Then David Brothers had 65, FB Eddie Hardin 35 and split end Darrell Smith 32. Woodard scored twice to become A&M's all-time TD maker with a total of 32. CB Mike Williams: "It was a great challenge going me-on-one against Mike Renfro. He and QB Steve Bayuk are the best combination I've been against bayuk are the best combination I be been against this year. In my opinion he (Renfro) won our battle".....Kyle Field's press box can't hold all the newsmen wanting to staff the Aggie-Texas game. Among out-of-staters will be AP, New York; Chicago Tribune, Chicago Sun-Times, Washington Post, Sents Microstot

Tony Franklin's 10 points (1FG, 7 PATs) against TCU gives him 217 for his career and moves him ast Steve Worster of Texas (216 in 1968-70) into the No. 4 spot in SWC history. He needs 8 points to break the school record of 224 set by JOEL HUNT in 1925-27 and to pass Hunt on the all-time SWC

The Aggies this year are averaging 399.1 ards per game in total offense and 322 per game in rushing.... In 66 games as a head college coach, Emory Bellard has yet to see his team play a tie. A 3-point difference has been the nearest. He has an overall 43-23 won-loss record.

With either the Cotton or Bluebonnet coming up,

A&M will be playing in its third straight bowl game. A&M was in the Liberty after the '75 season and the Sun after the '76 season. A&M has put in 697 total plays this year and has lost 17 fumbles, one for every 41 plays, except some of the fumbles were on kickoffs, punts, etc.

TCU middle guard John Wade: "Woodard runs straight. He has no cuts to the right or left, but then he doesn't need them." With Texas and Houston still to come into Kyle Field, A&M will wind up averaging around 54,000 fans for five home games this year. and, in a stadium that has 49,700 permanent seats. The stadium is due to be enlarged following the 1978 search. lowing the 1978 season Texas A&M's women's basketball team breezed

A&M-Texas will play for keeps

By PAUL MCGRATH
There was a riverboat gambler who once seemed to be having a run of bad luck one night. Although his wallet hadn't been too severly scathed, he hadn't been playing his cards as aggressively as his reputa-tion would have one believe.

Gaining confidence, the gambler's opponents began raising the stakes, hoping to recover past losses. But, their strategy began working against them as they cleaned out each other while somehow the gambler stayed in the

The remaining player knew a drawn out game would be to the gambler's advantage, and thus chose goes to the Bluebonnet. However, to end the contest in a final, winner-take-all hand.

Nervous fingers dealt the cards as winding streams of perspiration lined the face of the gambler's opponent. With every chip on the ta-gambler was asked how he managed to become the winner after such a bad start. The gambler replied, "I don't start playing for serious until the stakes are serious.

Saturday, the University of Texas and Texas A&M will meet for the 84th time and the stakes will be "for serious." The number one ranked Longhorns and the 12th ranked Ag-gies have more on the line than just national rankings.

The winner will be awarded a trip the Aggies must also defeat Houston ble, the gambler then proved why taking risks was his profession.

After counting his winnings and excusing himself from the table, the liberal versus reactionary, Greek versus Corps member. Whatever, the rivalry is as fervent as a Southern Baptist revival.

The Longhorn attack is laced with talent, including Heisman candidate Earl Campbell and receivers Johnny Jones and Alfred Jackson. Campbell has a string of nine consecutive 100-yard games going, but if the Aggies hope to slow down Texas by stacking against the run, they may find themselves fried on the pass. The Aggie secondary has proved vulnerable and a consistently strong pass rush has not developed to com-before making any plans about going to Dallas.

The activities on Kyle Field would be heated anyway, despite the prestige at stake. The game is standout defensive tackle Brad Shearer against either Doug Holmes or Kenny Kirk. Aggie cen-ter Mark Dennard will probably double team on Shearer, but that tactic hasn't stopped Shearer all

Oklahoma is the only other Texas opponent this year which has run the Wishbone and the Horns kept them from scoring a touchdown Thus, the Aggies might have to rel on the passing of quarterback David Walker to open up the ground

Coach Fred Akers team has been impressive, but not invincible as s turnovers against Baylor would show. A similar performance this week would be well greeted by Aggie partisans. Like all so-called "big games", penalties, turnovers and injuries will go a long way in determining the outcome
