Assn. of Former Students gives Class of 1981 $1,000

The Association of Former Students got the Texas A&M University's Class of 1981 off to a solvent start. A $1,000 check was presented Thursday to freshmen class officers by Randy Matson, the association's associate executive director.

It was accepted by class president Daniel Weinbaum of Beaumont; secretary-treasurer Patti Heaton of Richardson; and social secretary Kay Whitcomb of Baytown. The '81 vice president is Jess Mason of Colorado Springs, Colo.

"Classes at Texas A&M have typically gone into the red in getting their activities started, then depended on class balls and so forth to pull them out," said Dr. Carolyn Adair, student activities director. "The association made its first

Officer training to be conducted Dec. 5-9, A&M

Juvenile officers and police with juvenile responsibilities are scheduled for special training next week at the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center at Bryan.

The Dec. 5-9 Juvenile Officers Course will be sponsored by the Brazos Valley Development Council (BVDC).

Sessions instructed and coordinated by Charles Kenner will involve participants from all over the state. The course is one of two planned here next week by the Law Enforcement and Security Training Division of the Texas Engineering Extension Service. EES is part of the Texas A&M University System.

A Homicide Investigation Seminar will be conducted at the Rudder Center through Thursday.

Juvenile and peace officers will get information from Kenner, Bryan and College Station schools, police and law officials, and a BVDC spokesman.

Time stands still at our distillery where we still make Cuervo Gold by hand.

For centuries we've wound our clock by hand. And for centuries we've made Cuervo Gold by hand.

At the Cuervo distillery it's almost as if time has stood still. Our Blue Magueys are nurtured by hand, picked by hand, and carried to the ovens by hand, as they have been since 1795. It is this continuing dedication to tradition that makes Cuervo Gold special. Any way you drink it Cuervo Gold will bring you back to a time when quality ruled the world.

Cuervo. The Gold standard since 1795.

If you are being commissioned You may want to join the Bank of A&M's World-Wide program.

When you go on active duty, your banking requirements will change dramatically. You're going to move around the world. Your need for credit and for cash will be quite different from your classmates who return to their hometown to work and live. And the penalties for record keeping errors are more severe for military officers than most (if not all) other professions.

The World-Wide Department of the Bank of A&M was conceived to meet the needs of A&M officers on active duty. The department is staffed by Aggies with first hand experience of TDY, overseas movement, car financing in a foreign city, check-cashing problems at a military installation, allotments, telephone transfers, etc.

The World-Wide program includes all the features of the so-called "military banks": direct paycheck deposit, telephone loan service, write your own loan program, overseas car financing, automatic transfers from checking to savings (and visa versa), credit cards, overdraft protection . . . plus personal service by senior bank officers with career military experience and Aggie know-how.

Visit the Bank of A&M today (or some day of convenience) before your commissioning date to learn how the Bank of A&M's World-Wide Department can be of service to you.
