Vs Job seniority safe Speeding car kills one, injures

United Press International NEW YORK — One pedestrian was killed and a dozen others were injured by a speeding car driven down a sidewalk in Times Square Monday night, police reported. The driver, 19-year-old Harvey Collins of Man-hattan, stole the car from a honeymooning Vermont couple.

Witnesses said the autoreached speeds of 60 miles per hour as it meandered down West 42nd Street from Eighth to Seventh Avenues, along the sage parlors — striking unsus-pecting pedestrians in its path. Police arrested Collins as he tried to escape from a vengeful crowd of 100 persons who gathered around the car once it came to rest against a fire hy-

Officials said he would be charged with grand larceny and vehicular homicide.

The dead man was identified as R.A. Whitmore, 70. Six men and six women were injured. Among the injured taken to St.

age girls from Lodi, N.J., who had come into Manhattan to see the Rockefeller Center Christmas tree lighting.

Police identified the Vermont couple as 26-year-old Jerry Jenkins and his bride of about 12 hours, Marlene, 21, of Bur-

The couple had come to Manhattan after their wedding at 8 a.m. in Vermont, and Jenkins left his wife in the car while he went to see if they could get a room for the night at the New York Sheraton Hotel.

She did as she was told, and Collins drove off, authorities

The car jumped the sidewalk at 42nd Street near Eighth Avenue, and began hitting pedestrains, police said.

St. Clare's Hospital said seven persons were taken there while Roosevelt Hospital had three victims and Bellevue Hospital two others. Whitmore's body was taken to Bellevue street, Stephen Brown of Brooklyn said, "This guy takes off up the street. He goes up on the sidewalk doing 60, maybe 70 miles an hour. He hit people at one end and when he gets near Seventh Avenue, he hit a lady who flew up in the air and he hit her again when she came down."

Sandor Maraczi, who was working at a newsstand at the corner of 42nd and Seventh said, "I heard screaming and I heard the car hit the hydrant. If it hadn't hit the hydrant it would have run right into our news-
