OFFICIAL NOTICE

"OFFICIAL NOTICE"

SUBJECT: Filing Deadline Dates for Financial Aid
TO: All Students, Texas A&M University

The College Scholarship Service Financial Aid Form serves as the financial aid application at this University. To insure that financial aid funds are available at the beginning of the academic periods below, the following deadline dates for filing the Financial Aid Form are announced for your information and appropriate action:

Period	Last Mailing Date for Financial Aid Form	Last Date Financial Need Analysis Reports Will Be Accepted
Summer Session (12 weeks, only)	January 1	January 15
An Academic Year	April 1	April 15
Fall Semester, Only	April 1	April 15
Spring Semester, Only	September 1	September 15

The Financial Need Analysis Report is provided to this office by the College Scholarship Service and is based on information contained in the Financial Aid Form. Normal processing time for a Financial Aid Form at College Scholarship Service (including mail time) is about two (2) weeks. Therefore, you should mail your Financial Aid form to College Scholarship Service to allow sufficient time for proper processing and mail time.

Applicants for financial aid from Texas A&M University have to compete for limited funds. Deadlines are established so that all applicants are treated fairly and equally, without last minute haste. Financial Aid Forms submitted after the dates shown above will be processed only if time permits and funds are available.

Aggie Club gets officer

Brazos County A&M Club officers for 1978 will be installed at a Tuesday meeting. President Eddie Joe Davis, six other officers and four board members will take office. Installation ceremonies will be conducted by Richard "Buck" Weirus, executive director for the Association of Former Students. Davis, management services director at Texas A&M, replaces Malon Southerland as president and has served the club previous as activities and membership board president.

New board members to be installed are L.A. "Tiny" Keen, jazz Phillips, Lynn Colson and Midge Laughlin. They join five cumbury board members. Laughlin will serve the unexpired term of a former board member.

One of the largest local Aggie clubs in Texas, the Brazos Aggies support nine Brazos County Aggie students with scholarships to Texas A&M University. Davis said the Aggie club dues go to scholarship fund and invites local Aggie exes to attend. Monthly meetings during the university school year feature presentations on programs and activities at Texas A&M.

The meeting and ceremonies will take place at Jose's on Hwy. 30. Refreshments will be available at 7 p.m., dinner at 7:15. Dinner cost $4.50 per person.

Reservations can be made by phoning Pat Gersbach at 845-7888 before 5 p.m. Monday.

Former director of sensing center takes new duties

Dr. John W. Rouse Jr., former director of Texas A&M's Remote Sensing Center, has assumed duties as electrical engineering chair and director of bioengineering at the University of Missouri Columbia (UMC).

Rouse, who organized NASA's microwave remote sensing program, has also been named the E.A. Logan Professor at UMC.

He had directed the Texas A&M center since joining the staff in 1965. The center is recognized as one of the leading organizations in earth observations.
