Local anti-abortion demonstration flops

By JEANNE LOPEZ
Yesterday members of the Bryan and College Station Knights of Columbus, a Catholic men's fraternity, conducted a "Light Up for Life Campaign" to dramatize their opposition to abortion. The campaign was a nationwide effort by the KC Councils. But locally the campaign was not a success.

II. Student Access to Education Records

sponse is not in violation of this Act.

The Act provides that a student may waive his right of access to confidential letters of recommendation in the areas of admissions, job placement and receipt of awards. Students seeking employment through the University Placement Officemay have signed such a waiver. Information concerning the status of such waivers may be obtained from the Director of Placement. Consent to release personally identifiable information, such as rank in class, personal conduct, grade point ratio, academic progress, etc., to non-authorized personnel (see Section IV) should be obtained from the student by individuals releasing such information.

Records Not Accessible to Students

Employment records of a University employee who is not a student.

Records and information on a student maintained by a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist employed by the University. These records and information will be made available to a physician or other appropriate professional of the student's

OFFICIAL NOTICE

A publication known as the Texas A&M University Directory is one type of periodical containing data classified as "student directory information". It will contain the student's name, address, telephone listing, major field of study and classification unless the student requests that part or all of the data be withheld.

Periodically the Registrar will publish official notice of the above policy so that students wishing to do so can make requests known to the Registrar (undergraduates) or the Dean of the Graduate College (graduate students). After the official notice has been published, the Registrar will inform offices concerned of the requests received:

Texas A&M University constantly reviews "education records" it maintains and periodically it becomes necessary to destroy certain records. In no case will the University destroy records if the action is prohibited by state and/or federal law.

VIII. Letters of Recommendation

A. Students have the right to review confidential recommendations used in applications for employment or for admission to any educational agency or institution, or information concerning honors awarded, except when the student waives, in writing, the privileges of examination.

These procedures apply to all persons for merly enrolled at Texas A&M University a well as to those currently enrolled.
