Metcalfe's men lose again

By PAUL ARNETT
Battalion Sports Editor

The Texas Aggie basketball team is like the little boy with the curl. When they are good, they are very, very good. And when they are bad, they are horrid.

Against Texas Tech the Ags were horrid, losing to the Red Raiders 71-58.

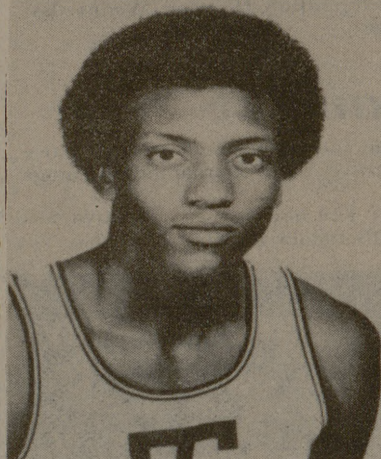

"I think we need to place a little curl in the middle of our foreheads," coach Shelby Metcalfe said. "I was pleased with the last 16 minutes. It was the first 24 that was so bad."

In the first half the Ags shot a miserable 25 percent from the field. It picked up a bit in the second half. A&M was able to connect upon 47 percent of its shots.

"It's consistency that we are lacking," Metcalfe said. "Sometimes we play really well, and sometimes we play really bad. We shot poorly in the first half because we didn't move the ball."

"Some of the guys on the team have this 'cool' attitude about them. We're going to have to get rid of that. I think from now on the guys who want to hustle and give 100 percent are the ones who are going to be in the line-up. You're not going to see us play another game like the one today."

A&M can't afford to play another game like the one against Tech. Tonight the Aggies host the undefeated Longhorns. Nothing could please Texas more than if the Ags continue to play like they are playing.

Yarborough wins second Nascar

United Press International
RIVERSIDE, Calif. — winning two straight Grand National championships row, Cale Yarborough should last stock car driver in with anything to prove. But that was exactly the 30-year-old veteran from monsville, S.C., felt about the new Nascar Sunday.

With a new car, 1977 Oldsmobile and a new team, Yarborough is up right where he left off last year by scoring a victory in the Western 500.

It was a typical close finish, with Benny Parsons on the outside and defending champion David Pearson just length behind.

A crowd estimated at 100,000 watched the race in the 50-degree weather.
