Swimmers go west

The Texas A&M men's and women's swimming teams will take a two-day trip to Arizona this weekend. The Aggies meet Arizona in Tucson Friday and Arizona State in Tempe on Saturday.

The men's team lost a dual meet to Houston Friday, 89-26. The top performance was Roger Lien who set a school record of 43.91 in the 1000-yd freestyle.

The women's team lost to Houston, 2-39, Friday and to LSU, 73-48, Saturday. In the Houston meet, Cheryl Houghton set school record with a 27.31 in the 50-yd butterfly, and the 200 freestyle relay team of Shirley Hill, Debbie Starr, Jeannie Buckles and Houghton qualified for nationals with a 1:40.23. In the LSU meet, Hill set a school record in the 1000-yd freestyle with 43:43 and the 400-yd freestyle relay qualified for nationals with a 3:39.80. Other winners for A&M against LSU were Susie Lynde in the 200 butterfly and Stacy Pletz in the 200 breaststroke.

Track in Oklahoma

The Texas A&M men's track team will compete in the Oklahoma City Indoor Meet Friday.

The meet will be the last preparation for the A&M team before the Southwest Conference Indoor Championships in Fort Worth Feb. 17.

Gymnasts unbeaten

The Texas A&M women's gymnastics team will host its second annual A&M Invitational Tournament Saturday at Bryan High School beginning at 1:30 p.m. Entries include Tarleton State, Southwest Texas, Oral Roberts, Odessa College, TCU, Texas and TWU.

Coach Jan Fambro's squad added to its undefeated record last weekend with two victories. The Aggies beat Texas in a dual meet in Austin Friday, 111.70 to 98.10. Patti Sloat took first in all-around while Laura Sheller was second, Kathy Pruett third and Tanya Hrabal sixth.

The Aggies won the Southwest Texas Invitational Saturday in Georgetown over SWT, Texas and TCU. Sloat was second in the all-around with Pruett third and Sheller fourth.

Baseball in Italy

Texas A&M baseball coach Tom Chandler has been named to coach the USA baseball team in the Intercontinental Cup Tournament in Italy this summer.

Chandler will assemble the team in Fairbanks, Alaska, for a week of practice games before going to Italy in late August. The tournament begins Aug. 26 and runs through Sept. 10.

Hogs come to town

The No. 2 team in the nation comes into G. Rollie White Coliseum Thursday to meet the steadily improving Texas Aggies in a 7:30 p.m. Southwest Conference contest. The Arkansas Razorbacks, led by the 10-11 Aggies.

Arkansas will be trying to maintain its tie with Texas at the top of the league standings while A&M will be trying to spring a surprise. The Aggies played their best game of the season Saturday in a 94-89 loss to Houston. Freshman Vernon Smith had an outstanding game with 31 points and 12 rebounds as A&M battled the Cougars right down to the wire.

A&M will go with a starting lineup of 5-11 Dave Goff and 6-5 Joey Robinson at the guards, 6-7 Willie Foreman and 6-5 Rynn Wright at the forwards and 6-7 Smith at center. Moncreif, Delph and Brewer will be joined by 6-11 Steve Schall and 6-7 Jim Counce in the starting five for Arkansas.

A&M coach Shelby Metcalf was tremendously pleased with his team's play against Houston. "I didn't know if we could get up after the heart-breaking loss to SMU," Metcalf said, "but our players really showed me a lot. You can't say enough for Dave Goff. He played 40 minutes of outstanding basketball. I'm really looking forward to Arkansas. They are a great basketball team with three of the best players in the country. It should be a great game."

A win for women

The Texas A&M women's tennis team has three matches scheduled this weekend against top flight competition. Coach Ellen Buchanan's team meets Lamar in Beaumont Friday, then plays LSU in Baton Rouge Saturday morning and Miami Saturday afternoon. LSU was fourth and Miami fifth in the USTA Nationals last year.

In their opening match of the season last Saturday, the Aggies beat Tyler Junior College 7-3. Kathleen Sissom, Judy Willard, Elise Richardson, Debbie Odum, Alexis Helley, and Betty Schilleut won singles matches while Susan Schilling and Sissom won in doubles.

Losses for men

Coach Richard Barker's Texas Aggies beat S.F. Austin and Lamar and lost to Houston in the Lamar Invitational in Beaumont last weekend. A&M beat SFA 9-0 and Lamar 7-2 while losing to UH 7-2.

In singles, Trey Schutz won all three matches. Max King, Mike Moss, Robin Baker and Jim Grubert won two and lost one while Reid Freeman won one and lost two. In doubles, Moss and Baker won all three matches. Schutz and Grubert won two and lost one, and King and Freeman won one and lost two.

The Aggies play St. Edward's here Friday and North Texas here Saturday. Both matches start at 1:30 p.m.

Kevin Monk wins Ag Heart Award

Kevin Monk, senior linebacker from Seguin, won the coveted Aggie Heart Award Saturday night at Texas A&M's annual Football Awards Program.

The award, based on such traits as effort, desire, dedication and perseverance, was determined by a secret vote of all members of the 1977 A&M football squad. It was presented to Monk by Dr. Jarvis Miller, president of Texas A&M University. Monk, a four-year varsity letterman, was an academic all-America and winner of a post-graduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation.

Coach Emory Bellard presented certificates to managers, trainers, football squadmen and 54 varsity lettermen. First-team all-SWC awards were made to center Mark Dennard, safety Carl Grulich and tackles Frank Myers and Cody Risien. Also, captain awards went to Dennard, Monk, quarterback David Walker and cornerback Mike Williams.

All students appearing in the 1977-78 edition of Who's Who please go by Barker Photography February 8-9 to sign up for your Aggieland picture.
