

Golfers finish ninth at Pan Am

By KEVIN PYLE
The A&M golf team, led by Dave Ogrin, finished ninth in a class field of 25 in the Pan American Intercollegiate in Monterrey, Mex.

Ogrin, a sophomore from Waukegan, Ill., finished in sixth place with a one over par 217 total for the three rounds played at the Campestre Country Club. He was seven shots behind winner David Edwards of Oklahoma State who had a 210 total.

Brigham Young University won the team title with an 863 followed by Oklahoma State at 874 and Oral Roberts at 897.

The University of Houston led all Southwest conference teams and also finished fourth with a score of 900 for the 45 holes of competition. A&M was second among the conference teams.

Aside from the good play of Ogrin, an honorable mention all-America last year, the rest of the Aggie team didn't have a good tournament.

"It was not a good tournament for us," Aggie golf coach Bob Ellis said. "We have to concentrate better and get mentally tough."

Individually for the Aggies, Ogrin led all scorers with rounds of 75-71-71 for a 217. Biff Alexander and Tim Carlton were next for the Ags as they matched 230 totals. Alexander combined rounds of 77-76-77 while Carlton carded scorers of 76-80-74.

Jay Kent had a 232 total based on rounds of 74-81-77. Richard Cromwell had a 237, but it didn't figure into the team score as only the low four scores counted.

A&M's next tourney will be on Feb. 20 and 21 as they travel to Beaumont for the Lamar Intercollegiate at Pinewood Country Club.
