

Four chosen major unit commanders

Major unit commanders in Texas A&M's 1978-79 Corps of Cadets will be Ronald Lastovica of Belton, James Nelson of Dallas, Robert East of Marshall and William McKerall of New Braunfels.

Their commands will be the Corps' largest, except for the new Corps commander, Robert J. Kamensky of San Angelo.

Selection of the four major commanders was announced by Col. James R. Woodall, professor of military science and commandant of cadets. All four are sergeant majors of their respective brigade-level units this year as juniors and are on military contract for commissions at graduation. They will be cadet colonels next year.

Ronald Lastovica, an agricultural economics major, will command the 1st Brigade, composed primarily of Army ROTC units. He was Class of '79 president as a sophomore and freshman.

A building construction major, James Nelson will head the 1st Regiment of the Navy-Marine Corps cadets. He was mascot corporal of Company E-2 as a sophomore.

Robert East will become commander of the 1st Wing, made up of Air Force ROTC cadets in squadrons and groups. The mechanical engineering major has a 3.71 grade point ratio.

William McKerall will command the Texas Aggie Band, composed of battalion-size Artillery and Infantry Bands for military purposes. He is under Navy contract and, like the other three, is a member of the Ross Volunteers.

With other new commanders, from company-squadron through cadet colonel of the Corps, they first officially assume the command post at Final Review May 6.

YOUR EDUCATION DOESN'T STOP HERE

Your education doesn't stop with a baccalaureate degree. It begins there. Once you enter the world of work, you will gain valuable experience and really discover what it's all about to use what you learned in college.

Take the Air Force for example. As a commissioned officer you'll be handed executive responsibility on your very first job. You'll manage people and complex systems. You'll be expected to perform well, and you'll be paid well, too. It's worth working for.

You can get there through the Air Force ROTC program. In fact, we have a scholarship plan that will net you $100 a month tax free and pay for all tuition, books and lab fees. And that will free you to concentrate on your studies so you can get well prepared for where you're headed.

Check it out. Find out how you can get into a "graduate" program like the Air Force. It's a great way to serve your country, and possibly find your formal education extended at Air Force expense as well.

When our workers sit down to lunch they sit down to a tradition. When they make Cuervo Gold it's the same.

Every day at just about eleven the wives from Tequila arrive at the Cuervo distillery bearing their husbands' lunches.

Lunches that have been lovingly prepared in the same proud manner since men first began working here in 1795.

It is this same pride in a job well-done that makes Cuervo Gold truly special. Any way you drink it, Cuervo Gold will bring you back to a time when quality ruled the world.

Cuervo. The Gold standard since 1795.
