Wrestlers win state meet

By PAUL ARNETT
Battalion Sports Editor

Way up in Wyoming the sport is called grappling with your neighbor. Due east of Curt Gowdy's state in Indiana it's called wrestlin'. Down here in Texas we pronounce it rasslin'.

But a rose by any other name would smell as sweet, and for the Texas Aggie wrestling team everything was coming up roses this past weekend in DeWare Field House.

The Aggies, scoring 106 points, won the state wrestling championship. North Texas State finished second with 58.5 points, Texas at El Paso finished third with 44.5 points, Texas Tech placed fourth with 44 points and defending champion Richland College finished the tournament in fifth place with 43 points.

Rounding out the rest of the 10-team field was Southwest Texas State finishing sixth with 40.5 points, then Texas Southern with 6.5 points, TCU with three points, Stephen F. Austin with 2.5 points and the University of Texas with no points.

The A&M wrestling team was assured a victory before the finals even began. The Aggies had eight wrestlers in the final 10 events, winning seven of the matches.

"With seven champions I can't be too disappointed," wrestling coach Larry Cannell said. "To be honest there was no way I would have thought we could have done this well. But the kids have been wrestling well all year, and we've always had what it takes to win in crucial situations."

The first Aggie victory came in the 118-pound class. In the main event Bill Kaelvey of A&M defeated Van Arsdale of Texas at El Paso 8-0. Zane Smith of A&M pinned his opponent Larry Goding of Southwest Texas in the 126-pound division.

Other A&M winners were John Sweatt in the 142-pound class, Bill Schlittler in the 158-pound class, Bob Santini in the 167-pound class and Blake Purcell in the 177-pound class. He pinned his opponent in the final period.

The Ags also claimed a victory in the heavyweight bout. Curt Templet of A&M defeated Gerald McKinnon of Southwest Texas 4-2. The lone setback for the Aggies was Larry Johnson's loss to Barry Hyder of North Texas State 9-1. Hyder was named the most valuable wrestler of the three-day tourney.

It was the last tournament of the year for the A&M wrestlers. But the tournament spells victory for the Aggies, no matter how it's pronounced.

Coogs, Irish in tourney

United Press International
HOUSTON — University of Houston coach Guy Lewis savors his team's victory over Notre Dame in 1965 almost as much as beating the Lew Alcinder UCLA Bruins.

"The UCLA game will always be the biggest, to me," Lewis said of Houston's 1968 victory before 52,693 persons in the Astrodome. "But beating Notre Dame after they had beaten us earlier by 30 points was a great one too."

Lewis was experiencing deja vu this week because his upstart Cougars are returning to the NCAA championship tournament for the first time in five seasons. Houston, 25-7, meets Notre Dame, 19-6, in the first game of the Midwest Regional Sunday.

"One good thing about playing Notre Dame," Lewis said. "We have a good chance of being on TV."

There are, however, numerous aspects of playing the Fighting Irish which concern the Houston coach. This season Notre Dame played nine teams which advanced to NCAA tournament. Houston is one.

"Once you get in the playoffs anybody you get is going to be good," Lewis said. "Say we play Louisville or DePaul. They're teams."

Noting that his team is playing against the Irish will be played in Tulsa, Lewis said, "Well, at Oral Roberts isn't Catholic."

Houston has met Notre Dame five times and won three of them. Lewis said his most important win of the series was a 99-95 overtime win in the first round of the NCAA tournament. Earlier this season the Irish blasted Houston 110-80.

The only other time the Cougars met in the playoffs was in 1968 when Houston won that one 119-108.

The Cougars were the first in the three years of the SWC season tournament to finish the regular season worse than second and win the tournament.

YOUR EDUCATION DOESN'T STOP HERE

Your education doesn't stop with a baccalaureate degree. It begins there. Once you enter the world of work, you will gain valuable experience and really discover what it's all about to use what you learned in college.

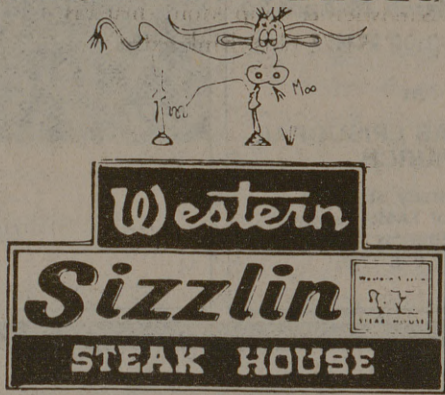

Take the Air Force for example. As a commissioned officer you'll be handed executive responsibility on your very first job. You'll manage people and complex systems. You'll be expected to perform well, and you'll be paid well, too. It's worth working for.

You can get there through the Air Force ROTC program. In fact, we have a scholarship plan that will net you $100 a month tax free and pay for all tuition, books and lab fees. And that will free you to concentrate on your studies so you can get well prepared for where you're headed.

Check it out. Find out how you can get into a "graduate" program like the Air Force. It's a great way to serve your country, and possibly find your formal education extended at Air Force expense as well.

Gateway to a great way of life.
