

Ags finish second in Border Olympics

By SEAN PETTY
The Texas A&M men's track team headed for the border Saturday. The Aggies came up four points short of defending their title at the meet. The Rice Owls swooped in to take the team title with 120 points to A&M's 116. The Ags did finish ahead of Baylor (101), University of Texas (47), Lamar (43), SMU (31), Texas Tech (15), North Texas State (14), and TCU (eight).

Mike Mosley, the talented freshman from Humble, was the meet's outstanding athlete. Mosley accumulated 27 points from the four events he entered. Mosley took second in the long jump with a leap of 23-8.5, being beaten out by Rice's Curtis Isaih on his last jump. Mosley won the 120-yard high hurdles in a time of 14.2. He then placed fourth in the 100-yard dash with a time of 10.0. Mosley also ran the first leg of the winning 440-relay team.

The Aggies had a good team effort in Laredo. Coach Ted Nelson was pleased with the performance, but felt the Aggies should have won the meet.
"A lot of things happened in the meet that hurt us. We should have won the meet by 20 points," said Nelson. "Randy Hall should have placed in the pole vault and we didn't get points in some of the events we thought we should."
Although the Aggies did not do as well as expected, there were some good individual efforts. Steve Stewart won the discus with a throw of 174-1, while Tim Scott placed third in the same event with a 173-4 toss. Scott also placed second in the shot put with a 54-6.5 effort. Randy Dickey, no relation to Tim, placed third in the shot put throwing 52.5.

The 440-relay team of Mosley, Brooks, Leslie Kerr, and Curtis Dickey, took first with a time of 40.9. The team of Karl Figgs, Arthur Williams, Vernon Pittman and Kerr won the mile relay with a time of 3:15.5.
Dickey won the 100-yard dash easily with a time of 9.7. Dickey also anchored the 440-relay team and placed fourth in the 220-yard dash in a time of 21.9. Dickey is tuning up for the NCAA Indoor Championship this weekend in Detroit. Dickey and coach Ted Nelson will travel to Detroit Thursday where Dickey will run the 60-yard dash.

Dickey has one of the best electronically timed 60-yard dash times in the world. Coach Nelson feels Auburn's Harvey Glance is the man to beat. Dickey will be shooting for Houston McTear's world record of 6.04 when he runs on Friday afternoon.

Manfred Kohrs ran well for the Aggies, placing third in the mile with a time of 4:11.9, and fourth in the three-mile run with a time of 14:00.
Leslie Kerr won the 440-yard dash with a time of 48.3. Billy Busch took third in the 120-yard high hurdles running a 14.3. Tom C. placed fifth in the 880-yard dash with a time of 1:54.0. Ray B. took sixth in the 220 with a time of 22.5. Michael Newsome placed sixth in the javelin with a time of 210-1.

The Aggies will compete in Southwest Recreation meet in Worth this Saturday.

Mark Patterson A night at the fights

I've always been someone who would do almost anything if I could see a good fist fight. Since grade school on, if two of my chums decided to lock horns and do battle for whatever cause seemed necessary, I was usually playground-side urging them on.
Well the urge has stayed with me through the years and I traveled deep into the heart of Bryan last Thursday night to watch some not too artistic, but a lot of laughs boxing.
In the second annual Sigma Phi Epsilon Fight Night held last Wednesday and Thursday nights at the National Guard Armory, the fists were flying and the blood was flowing.
Now a real lover of boxing would probably have groaned at the style of the contestants, but what could he expect? The contest was open to Texas A&M students, with most of them far below the standards of your experienced ringmen.
But the real requirement for entering was if you could take a punch. That's why I sat this one out.
But 57 fighters signed up for this year's competition (up from 32 last year). The teams entered as groups of three in either the open or Greek divisions.

Even with the requirements so loosely set only one dorm, Moses Hall, entered this year's competition. And the dorm produced one champion, Jay Gilbert, in the open heavyweight division.
Gilbert's fight was probably the best fight of Thursday evening. From the opening bell the 232-pound Gilbert and Mike Barrett, a 240-pound junior representing the Rodeo Club, pounded on each other's head and body. Blood started to flow in the first round and when the final bell had sounded, the judges awarded the decision to Gilbert.
The judges did a good job throughout the two night event. Stepping in to call this year's fights were Wally Groff, assistant athletic director for business affairs here at Texas A&M, Don Brister, executive vice president for the Aggie and making a return visit from year's fights and the third judge Marvin Tate, associate athletic director at Texas A&M.

The judges didn't have a trouble calling the last fight of the night, the Greek open heavyweight championship.
Gary Hampton, representing Sigma Phi Epsilon, knocked Mike Bate of the Kappa Alpha fraternity. With the victory, the Eps won the Greek division for second straight year with Gamma Delta fraternity placing second.
In the open division, Timberlake took top honors with the Club finishing second.
Timberlake had two of three members win their respective weight divisions. Roy Dillard, placing in the heavyweight division, Timberlake, had his fight when he slipped into one of the posts receiving a cut above his eye. The fight was called and Dillard taken to the University Health Center to sew up the cut. It required stitches.
But Karl Kickham and Brad won their divisions and got Timberlake this year's champion. Rice won the middleweight division by defeating Brad. And Kickham took the lightweight open division by defeating Jenek.
In the Greek lightweight division Stephen Davis (KA) defeated Fisher (Sig Ep). And in the middleweight division Duane Gor and Ed Simmons, both Sig flipped a coin to see who was crowned champion. Kilgor, for Sig Ep's number one team, accepted the title and the points for his team.
David Cook undertook the organizing and running this fight for the Sig Eps and did without a hitch. He arranged Sig Eps to buy a professional use for this year's fights. The been donated to the Boys Club by Bryan for use in between Eps yearly undertaking.
I really enjoyed the two night boxing. But that's nothing enjoy watching midget wrestling TV Saturday nights. I have life.
