

Aggie notes. . .

Curtis Dickey, who won the SWC Indoor 60-yard dash, will go for the NCAA title in that event this Friday and Saturday in the NCAA Championships in Detroit, Mich. Assistant track coach Ted Nelson will take Dickey to the Motor City where the big Aggie sophomore will run in the prelims at 7:05 p.m. Friday. Semifinals are set for 1:45 p.m. Saturday and the finals come 15 minutes later at 2 p.m.

Dickey's best time for the 60 was 6.13. The American record now is 6.04.

Coach Richard Barker's A&M tennis team plays two SWC matches this week, meeting Baylor in Waco Wednesday and hosting Rice on Friday. Then, next week the Aggies will compete in the Rice Tournament in Houston.

Last Saturday the Aggies blanked North Texas, 9-0. The Aggie lineup had Reid Freeman, Max King, Mike Moss, Trey Schut, Robin Baker and Hendrik Roller playing singles; Freeman-King, Moss-Schut and Baker-Jim Grubert playing doubles.

The same lineups will be used in the two matches this week.

Assistant football coach Dean Campbell has resigned to accept a position as secondary coach at the University of New Mexico. Campbell joined the Texas A&M staff in 1973 as a graduate assistant and became a fulltime staff member in 1975. His duties included working with the secondary and the scout team.

The Texas A&M men's golf team will compete in the Border Olympics Golf Tournament Friday and Saturday in Laredo. Playing for the Aggies will be Doug Ward, Richard Cromwell, Tim Carlton, Mark Taylor, Biff Alexander and Jay Kent.

Following the Border Olympics, the team will compete in the Fresno State Classic Mar. 17-18 in Fresno, Calif. Making that trip for the Aggies will be Dave Ogrin along with Ward, Cromwell, Carlton, Taylor and Alexander.

The women's golf team, following a sixth place finish in its own tournament last week, will compete in the Betsy Rawls Invitational in Austin Mar. 17-18. Playing for A&M will be Kim Bauer, Carol Berry, Andrea Welch, Rita Aguilar, Betty Ghio and Susan Smerick.

The Texas A&M women's tennis team defeated North Texas 6-0 last Saturday to bring its dual meet record to 2-5 for the season. Winning matches for A&M were Kathleen Sissom, Debbie Odum, Mary Guerra and Susan Schilling in singles; Sissom and Alexis Hefley, Betty Shillcutt and Judy Willard in doubles.

The women's team hosts Rice Wednesday and Lamar on Mar. 14.

The Texas A&M women's track team will compete in the Port Lavaca Relays Friday and Saturday without star performer Linda Cornelius. Cornelius will be competing for the USA team against Canada in a pentathlon meet at the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs Saturday.

The team's scheduled meet last weekend in Fort Worth was cancelled due to bad weather.

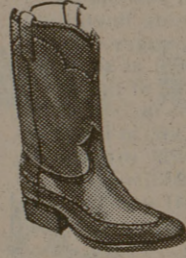

The Texas A&M women's basketball team closed out its 1977-78 season by winning two and losing two at the TALAW state tournament in San Angelo last weekend. The Aggie Ladies finished with a 19-18 record in Coach Wanda Bender's first year.

A&M lost to Texas in the first round, 84-56, then beat Trinity, 79-37, and Lamar, 69-63 in overtime, before losing to Houston, 74-68.

With the top seven scorers returning next year, the Aggie Ladies should be improved. The top seniors are guards Karen Muskiet and Denise Bettis. The top two scorers were sophomores Pat Werner and Von Bunn with soph Susan Kimbro as the leading rebounder. Other top returnees are juniors Sheree Christian, Margaret Byrne, Cindy Gough and Jo Troell along with freshman Julia Crawford.
