

Show must go on

Concerts, musicals this week

Canadian tapestry, a free rock concert and the Broadway hit musical "Carnival" share the cultural spotlight at Texas A&M University this week.

The University Arts Exhibit is sponsoring a showing of Canadian tapestries Wednesday through Friday in the Rudder Center Exhibit Hall. The tapestries, on loan from the Canadian government, are designed by contemporary Canadian artists using modern designs and patterns.

"Carnival," a musical comedy, will run Thursday through Saturday in Rudder Forum. Performances for the Aggie Player's production are at each evening. Tickets are on sale at the Rudder Box Office and will be available at the door the night of the performance.

A free concert is scheduled at 8:30 p.m. Monday at the educational radio and television building. It features the rock band "Falling Star."

The Hospitality Committee of the MSC will sponsor an Easter Egg Hunt for children at 5 p.m. Tuesday in Room 212 of the Memorial Student Center.

Campus comedians will get a chance to make their humor pay 8:45 p.m. Thursday at the MSC fountain in Town Hall's "Best Comedian on Campus Contest." Winners will receive two reserve seat tickets to the upcoming Steve Martin show, and a copy of his "Let's Get Small" album.

Texas A&M will play seven home games in its new Olsen Field.

Nationally-ranked Southern California opens Olsen Field in a two-day series Tuesday and Wednesday. The game Tuesday will be at 3 p.m. following dedication of the field at 2 p.m. Wednesday's game is at 1 p.m.

Minnesota and the Aggies have a double header Thursday at 1 p.m. Friday and Saturday are reserved for Rice, with three games scheduled. Friday's single will be 3 p.m. and Saturday's double is 1 p.m.

Movies next week at Texas A&M run from A to Z with everything from "Auntie Mame" to "Dr. Zhivago" scheduled.

What is probably Shakespeare's best known play, "Hamlet," starring Nicol Williamson, will be shown at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Rudder Theater. "Dr. Zhivago," the epic story of the Russian Revolution starring Omar Sharif, Julie Christie, Rod Steiger and Geraldine Chaplin, will be shown at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Rudder Theater.

"The Rocky Horror Picture Show," starring Susan Sarandon and Richard O'Brien will be presented at 8 and 10 p.m. Thursday in Rudder Auditorium. Probably one of the strangest movies ever made, the story concerns transvestite aliens from another galaxy who sing and dance their way through the movie satirizing everything from "King Kong" to contemporary morals.

Also in a comic vein is "Silver Streak" starring Gene Wilder, Richard Pryor and Jill Clayburgh. It will be shown at 8 p.m. Friday in Rudder Auditorium and 8 p.m. Saturday in Rudder Theater. Romance, murder and intrigue are the key ingredients in this cross-country comedy-adventure on board a runaway computer train.

"Cabaret," the movie that boosted Liza Minnelli into stardom, will be shown at midnight Thursday in Rudder Theater. The eight time Academy winner stars Joel Grey and Michael York. The story covers decadent night life in Berlin during
