

Tennis team loses to TCU

By KEVIN PYLE
A&M's tennis team is like a group of mountain climbers who are caught just below the summit. They have had a good climb but they just can't seem to get over the last ledge.
Wednesday against TCU was no exception as the Aggs fell to the Horned Frogs by a score of 8-1. The loss was a close one however as three of A&M's players split sets in singles and one of the doubles teams won.

The lone victory for the Aggies came in the No. 2 doubles as the team of Mike Moss and Trey Schutz beat TCU's Rick Meyers and David Zimmerman by scores of 7-6, 6-4.
In singles competition, freshman Reid Freeman in the No. 1 position, was beaten by TCU's All-American Randy Crawford 6-3, 6-3.

Freeman started out like he was going to come off with an upset over the TCU star as he won the opening three games of the first set easily. Crawford, a senior, got his swing grooved however and went on to win 10 games in a row. Freeman won three in a row in the second set before being closed out 6-3.

For Freeman it was his second loss in conference play which gives him a 5-2 record. Crawford, last year's SWC singles champion, upped his record to 6-0.
TCU, ranked tenth in the nation in the latest poll, also won the other five singles matches. Rick Meyers beat freshman Max King 6-1, 6-3, and Tut Bartz Jr., the coach's son, downed junior Mike Moss by scores of 7-5, 6-2.

In the next three singles matches, A&M did manage to split sets with the Frogs. Freshman Trey Schutz was beaten by David Zimmerman 6-3, 4-6, 6-3, junior Robin Baker was defeated by David Kelley 6-3, 5-7, 6-4, and freshman Jim Grubert was downed by Jim Allen 1-6, 6-4, 6-4.

In doubles, Crawford and Bartz beat Freeman and King 6-3, 6-0 and Kelly and Allen beat Baker and Grubert 6-4, 6-0.

Coach Richard Barker's Aggies are now 26-28 in conference play while Tut Bartz Jr.'s team is 34-7 and have a perfect 6-0 match record in conference play.

Coach Bartz, obviously pleased with his team's performance, said that after they upset No. 4 SMU last week they would probably move up a couple of notches in the rankings.

The Aggies next match will be against the Mustangs in Dallas and it will be their last conference match before the SWC meet which will be played April 22-24 at the HEB Tennis Center in Corpus Christi.
