

ports

Garvey voted MVP NL stars win, 7-4

United Press International
SAN DIEGO — The All-Star boy delivered the all-important base hit and that, essentially, was the story of the 49th All-Star game.
Steve Garvey, the Los Angeles Angels' $333,000 superstar first man lived up to his image once Tuesday night in leading the national League to a come-from-behind 7-3 victory, dealing the American League its seventh straight loss and 15th defeat in 16 games.
Garvey's triple leading off the third inning ignited a four-run rally and snapped a 3-3 tie.
The former Michigan State football player also had a two-run single in the third inning and was voted All-Star game's MVP for the third time in five years. In 1974, he was the MVP at Pittsburgh after a 2-1 National League triumph.
Garvey, 29, received a severe cut required 29 stitches on a pick-off play at Houston Saturday, but he refused to come out of the lineup Sunday and played in his 434th straight game.

Dodger Manager Tommy Lasorda, in his first All-Star game managing assignment, played Garvey all the way in Tuesday night's game, although Garvey was still wearing a heavy bandage over his chin.
"I don't hit with my chin," Garvey smiled.
"We thought," said Lasorda, "Steve would go nine innings and we'd use Willie Stargell for a key situation."
New York Yankees $2.7 million relief ace Rich Gossage faced Garvey to lead off the eighth and the right-hand hitting Garvey delivered a towering opposite field fly that appeared to be headed out of cavernous San Diego Stadium. But the ball hit high on the right field fence and Garvey settled for a triple.
"I thought that ball was going out," remarked Garvey. "But against Gossage, anytime you hit the ball hard like that, you've got to be satisfied. He's just a tremendous pitcher."

The National League broke a 3-3 deadlock one pitch after Garvey's triple when Gossage threw a wild pitch and Garvey crossed the plate standing up. After a walk to Dave Concepcion, Dave Winfield lined a single that was kicked by left fielder Chet Lemon. With runners on second and third, Bob Boone delivered a two-run single. After a groundout, Dave Lopes hit a run-scoring single and the American League was thoroughly beaten again.
"Each award is special," Garvey said when asked about his two MVP trophies. "In 1974, I was the first write-in starter in the history of the All-Star game and I had the mumps five days before the game. Tonight it was special because I helped us come from behind."
Garvey has hit safely in all five of his All-Star appearances and he was asked to give his explanation for National League dominance.

"To me," he replied, "our spirit and camaraderie have been the keys. You can see it on our bench tonight. I'm prejudiced, too; I feel the National League has the best 24 or 25 players."
Lasorda is known for his hugging, rah-rah style and he didn't let the occasion pass without talking about team spirit once again.
"I've never seen such enthusiasm from such outstanding ball players," he said.
Bruce Sutter of the Chicago Cubs pitched 1 2-3 innings of hitless relief to get credit for the win in his first All-Star appearance.

Herrera kicked around?

United Press International
THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. — Kicker Efren Herrera, whose 93 points placed him third in the NFL last season, has not reached contract terms with the Dallas Cowboys and says he is upset by their offers.
"You can't imagine how hurt I am by the offer they have made to me," Herrera said Monday. "I think I've proven myself. I've been the difference in a lot of games for Dallas. I just have to wonder why they're doing it. Is it because I talk funny?"
"I want to play for the Cowboys, but I want them to be fair. There are third-year kickers in the NFL getting twice, three times more money than I am. And, believe me, I'm not asking for any million dollar deal. What I'm asking for is realistic. And that's what really upsets me."

Harvey (Martin) goes in to negotiate his contract, presents them with a realistic figure and they say 'fine.' Cliff Harris does the same. No problem. Then they hear what I feel like I should have and say 'Who does this guy think he is?' What they have done, essentially, is come back with a counter offer and told me I can take it or leave it, period."
As a result, Herrera said he was undecided about his future.
"I have worked hard during the off seasons to prepare myself for doing other things than playing football," said Herrera who will be 27 this month. "They (the Cowboys) seem to think I need to play to keep food on the table.

Still, I'm hoping we can come to terms."
Herrera's options include retirement, accepting the Cowboys' offer or playing out his option. Gil Brandt, director of player personnel for Dallas, said the Cowboys provided a written offer and said he was sorry to hear Herrera was upset.
Herrera's agent said the Dallas offer was for a lower salary than most top NFL kickers.
"What they have offered him to date is a disgrace," said agent Bucky Woy.
The Cowboys recently signed kicker Ove Johansson, 30, a former Philadelphia Eagle who also is represented by Woy.
Woy said the Cowboys were using Johansson as a pawn in negotiations with Herrera.

Carew may move soon

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
SAN DIEGO — All-Star games nothing new for Rod Carew. Tonight's was his 12th and, naturally, every one of them has been the American League.
The way he hits, he's already a bet to play in his 13th All-Star game a year from now, except that he very likely will be on the National League squad.
The matters stand, he and Minnesota Twins' owner Calvin Griffith are nearer a solution to their contractual stalemate than they were months ago, when they were so far apart there was little or no use for either one to speak to the other as of it.
Carew's time running out and Carew publicly announced he intended leaving the Twins at the end of next season, which will be his 10th year. Griffith tried to make a deal for him with an American League club last month but was unable to get enough for his six-time batting champion.
Carew was taken off the marquee and he will finish the season with Minnesota. But as soon as the World Series is over and the next inter-league trading period opens up, Griffith will make the best deal he can with a National League club.

The chief reason the Twins' owner will go outside his own league is because he'll probably be able to get more for Carew that way. Another reason is because in that way his 32-year-old first baseman can't readily come back to haunt him.
The Cincinnati Reds took pretty much the same course when they traded their MVP Frank Robinson to the Baltimore Orioles, with whom Robinson promptly turned around and won himself another MVP award.
In the interest of harmony for the next three months, Griffith and Carew have agreed not to discuss their problem in public and that's why whenever anyone asks Griffith whether there's any chance he still might sign Carew, he says he has no comment.
"He and I have an understanding," Griffith said. "Neither of us will talk about it until the season is over."

On his way to a seventh batting title with a .349 average that leads both leagues, Carew realizes there's hardly any chance of his remaining with the Twins.
When I asked him if he saw even the slightest possibility the stalemate might be settled, he shook his head and said, "I don't see how."
That answer evoked the next rather obvious question. Since he has the necessary time in to veto any deal he doesn't like, does Carew have any particular preference to which National League club he wishes to be dealt?
"I don't care if it's in Japan, as long as it's a winning team," he answered.
"People can say you're a great player, but if you don't play on a winning team, it's no fun," continued Carew, who has never been in a World Series.
Billy Williams is a good example of that. He was a great player but in all the years he played with the Cubs he never was with a winner. When you win, it's fun; when you don't, it's depressing.
"They said I was asking for an outrageous salary. But I don't think it's outrageous. And besides, it isn't the money."
"I don't want to be the richest man in the world. I simply want to be compensated for the things I do, the things on and off the field. Yet, that isn't the uppermost thing in my mind. When you play for a club and it doesn't win, it's hard to be there and not get results."
So Carew merely goes about his work and says nothing about what he has a pretty good idea will happen this fall.
"What I do now is shut up," he said, with a small smile. "Sometimes that's the best way."

AGGIES DEPEND ON LOU . . .

and Lou depends on Aggies to sell him, their used books now, so he could sell them back to other Aggies at the lowest possible prices this fall.

BRING US YOUR USED BOOKS NOW!!!

Loupot's Bookstore

Northgate - Across from the Post Office

GRADS

Need a Really Good Job?

A legal career without law school can be yours as a Legal Assistant. Job opportunities are excellent in this exciting new field. Legal assistants do much work traditionally done only by lawyers.

Three months of intensive training in courses taught by lawyers can give you the skills to interview witnesses, do legal research, prepare pleadings, draft transaction documents, and prepare cases for trial under the supervision of an attorney.

The Basic Legal Assistant Course begins September 11. Call or write for further information:

The Southwestern Paralegal Institute
5512 Chaucer
Houston, Texas 77005
(713) 528-3803
Approved by the Texas Education Agency

SALE of Priority AT TEAS

BLENDS OF GIFT-GIVING
3609 EAST 29TH (ACROSS FROM RUTH'S)
The Whole Bean Coffee Speciality Shop of the Brazos Valley!

10%-50% OFF

COFFEE & TEA ACCESSORIES plus other items!
Friday - July 14; Saturday July 22
Come See Us!

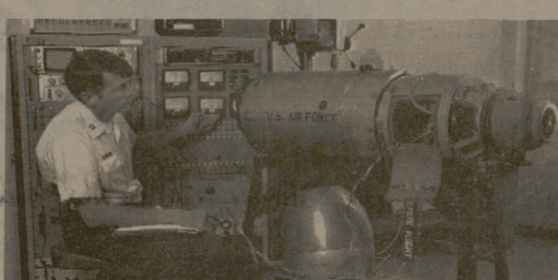

Conference shorts

United Press International
SAN ANGELO — Houston Oil-coach Bum Phillips says former coach of Texas running back Campbell is becoming city-conscious.
Phillips said Monday after seeing the Heisman Trophy winner in his first workout. "He's emssed about getting all this attention and other players are not. The other players realize Earl is not to get this."
Campbell, described by Phillips as the best young back I've ever seen, was one of 47 rookies and prospects reporting to the opening camp of the Oilers' pre-season camp.

more than $240,000, plus expenses, for being one of the final four teams in the basketball championships at St. Louis this year.
The other three finalists — Kentucky, Notre Dame and Duke — received the same amount. Overall, the NCAA said it distributed more than $3 million to the 32 teams in the tournament.
The Razorbacks lost to No. 1 Kentucky in a semifinal game and defeated Notre Dame in the final consolation game to finish third in the nation.

Little Rock — The NCAA has given the University of Arkansas a $1 million scholarship fund.
"Flowers for All Occasions" — Petal Patch, Texas 707, Phase II 712/846-671.
Eddie Dominguez '66, Joe Arciniega '74.

AIR FORCE ENGINEERS AND SCIENTISTS ARE PROBLEM-SOLVERS

Plus, they enjoy a worldwide reputation for excellence. If you have vision, creativity, and a scientific or engineering degree, apply your talents with a modern service that's geared for the future. Completion of the Air Force's three-month Officer Training School earns you an officer's commission and starts you on the road to a future-oriented career. The Air Force also offers you an excellent salary, medical and dental care, 30 days of paid vacation a year, a $20,000 life insurance policy for about $4 a month, and many other benefits. Find out today what the Air Force has to offer by contacting Sgt. Robert Gallegos, 3031 Crossview, Houston, Texas 77063, 713 226-5468.

AIR FORCE
A great way of life.

LADIES SHOES
LONG DRESSES
SHORT DRESSES

the collegiate shoppe
2018-22 TEXAS AVENUE 823-0630 BRYAN

Tower

Dining Room

Serving Luncheon Buffet Sunday through Friday 11:00 A.M. to 1:30 P.M. $3.50

Top Floor of Tower Dining Room Sandwich & Soup Mon. thru Fri. $1.75 plus drink extra

Open to the Public

"QUALITY FIRST"

WANTED:

THESE BOOKS!!!

Loupot is buying all your used books right now, but some books we really NEED so we'll buy them at a PREMIUM PRICE!! (over & above our reg. 20% in trade)

WE'RE PAYING A PREMIUM PRICE FOR THESE TEXTBOOKS:

ACCT. 327 ACCT. 401	CHEM. ENG. 204 CHEM. ENG. 304 C E 204	M.E. 210 M.E. 212
AG. ENG. 222 BIO CHEM. 410	C.E. 365 ECON. 203	M.E. 340 PET. ENG. 305
BIO 113 BIO 351	MGMT. 211 MATH. 103	PHYS. 201 PHYS. 201

Trade your used books for the books you'll need this fall, beat the fall book rush and if you need a different book later we'll give you a full refund the first 2 weeks of the semester!!!

LOUPOT'S BOOKSTORE

Northgate - Across from the Post Office

"Flowers for All Occasions" — Petal Patch, Texas 707, Phase II 712/846-671.

upinamba Eddie Dominguez '66, Joe Arciniega '74.

mande Real ing!

I want the real, not frozen or ed... We call it I can Food me."

location: Northwest Hwy IN 570