Apartment unit collapses, injures sheetrock workers

HOUSTON — An unfinished two-story apartment unit collapsed Monday, injuring four workers, none seriously, a fire department ambulance spokesman said.

"They were four sheetrock workers. None were in critical condition but they were taken to the hospital," the spokesman said. "It took quite a while working in there, cutting holes, just to be sure we didn't have any more people."

He said that at 10:45 a.m. the unit, a "six or eight apartment" portion of a complex outside the city limits at Imperial Valley and Seminar across from Greenspoint Mall, "collapsed completely."

Officials at Citizens General Hospital and Houston Medical Center Northwest listed the men in stable condition and said there was at least one possible back injury and a broken leg. Names were not immediately available.

"Some of the workmen said they had advised the contractor that it was about three or four inches out of plumb and was going to fall down and sure enough it did," said Fire Capt. W.R. Johnson.

He said the prime contractor was Ginther-Davis Construction Co. Officials from the company could not be reached, but a spokesman for related firm, Ginther-Davis Interests, said an internal inquiry has begun.

"The event happened this morning and my phone is ringing off the wall," the spokesman said. "We have all of the people that are normally involved in this kind of the looking at it."

"We just simply don't have all the facts yet and are not prepared to make a statement at all."

Harris County Sheriff's Dept. G.L. Moore said a county investigation also was underway.
