II. Student Access to Education Records All students (and former students) of Texas
A&M University have the right of access to their education records for the purpose of review, with the exception of those records prohibited by the Act (see Section III).

A. Students have the right to obtain copies of records relating to themselves at the expense of the student. The reproduction charge shall not exceed the actual cost to the University.

B. The University will respond to all requests for explanations and interpretations of records or information, provided the response is not in violation of this Act.

sponse is not in violation of this Act.

2. The Act provides that a student may waive his right of access to confidential letters of recommendation in the areas of admissions, job placement and receipt of awards. Students seeking employment through the University Placement Office may have signed such a waiver. Information concerning the status of such waivers may be obtained from the Director of Placement. Consent to release personally identifiable information, such as rank in class, personal conduct, grade point ratio, academic progress, etc., to non-authorized personnel (see Section IV) should be obtained from the student by individuals releasing such information.

ecords Not Accessible to Students

B. Records of a student in the custody of the Office of University Police, provided they are maintained solely for law enforcement purposes, and are made available only to law enforcement officials of the same jurisdiction.

D. Records and information on a student maintained by a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist employed by the University. These records and information will be made available to a physician or other appropriate professional of the student's choice.

Authorized Non-Student Access to Student Records — Under the following circumstances and to the following people, educational records (or personally identifiable information within a record) may be released without the written consent of the student:

A. Officials, faculty and staff employed by Texas A&M University, if they have a "legitimate educational interest."

B. Officials of other educational institutions in which the student intends "or seeks" to enroll, provided the student is notified of what is being released and given a copy if desired.

C. Authorized representatives of the Com-ptroller General of the United States; the Secretary of Health, Education and Wel-fare; administrative heads of educational agencies; or state educational authorities. Individuals needing this information in connection with a student's application for, or receipt of, financial aid.

dian reports.

The student will be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to challenging the content of the educational records in order to insure that they are not inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the privacy or other rights of students. The hearing also provides an opportunity for correction or deletion of any inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate data contained in the record and/or to insert into the record a written explanation of the student respecting the content of the challenged record.

A publication known as the Texas A&M University Directory is one type of periodical containing data classified as "student directory that part or all of the data be withheld.

VIII. Letters of Recommendation

B. Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, the student does not have access to confidential letters and statements of recommendation which were placed in the education records prior to January 1, 1975, if the letters or statements are used for purposes for which they were specifically intended.

These procedures apply to all persons formerly enrolled at Texas A&M University as well as to those currently enrolled.
