II. Student Access to Education Records

B. The University will respond to all requests for explanations and interpretations of Sponse is not in violation of this Act.

C. The Act provides that a student may waive his right of access to confidential letters of recommendation in the areas of admissions, job placement and receipt of awards. Students seeking employment through the University Placement Office may have signed such a waiver. Information concerning the status of such waivers may be obtained from the Director of Placement. Consent to release personally identifiable information, such as rank inclass, personal conduct, grade point ratio, academic progress, etc., to non-authorized personnel (see Section IV) should be obtained from the student by individuals releasing such information.

A. Instructional, supervisory, and administra-tive personnel records and educational personnel records pertaining thereto in the sole possession of the author and not re-vealed to any person other than a substi-tute (i.e., grade books, notes of observa-tion and notes for recollection purposes).

Records of a student in the custody of the Office of University Police, provided they are maintained solely for law enforcement purposes, and are made available only to law enforcement officials of the same

C. Employment records of a University employee who is not a student.

D. Records and information on a student maintained by a physician, psychiatrist or psychologist employed by the University. These records and information will be made available to a physician or other appropriate professional of the student's choice.

Authorized Non-Student Access to Student Records — Under the following circumstances and to the following people, educational records (or personally identifiable information within a record) may be released without the written consent of the student:

A. Officials, faculty and staff employed by Texas A&M University, if they have a "legitimate educational interest."

Officials of other educational institutions in which the student intends "or seeks" to enroll, provided the student is notified of what is being released and given a copy if Authorized representatives of the Com-ptroller General of the United States; the Secretary of Health, Education and Wel-fare; administrative heads of educational agencies; or state educational authorities. Individuals needing this information in connection with a student's application for, or receipt of, financial aid.

Student Rights to Challenge Records

Students have the right to a hearing to challenge records and information directly relating to them. The challenge is restricted to inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate records and information. The following procedures shall be followed:

All initial hearings will be informal and participants will be the custodian of the challenged records or information, the student and the author (if appropriate) of the mate-

The hearing will be conducted and the results decided within a reasonable period of time (seven business days) following the request for the hearing.

2. The hearing will be conducted, and the decision rendered, by an institutional official or other party who does not have a direct inferest in the outcome of the hearing. The appointment of the official or party will be made by the Vice President to whom the record custodian reports.

VI. Release of "Student Directory Information

A publication known as the Texas A&M University Directory is one type of periodical containing data classified as "student directory information". It will contain the student's name, address, telephone listing, major field of study and classification unless the student requests that part or all of the data be withheld.

VII. Destruction of Records

Texas A&M University constantly reviews "education records" it maintains and periodi-cally it becomes necessary to destroy certain records. In no case will the University destroy

VIII. Letters of Recommendation

A. Students have the right to review confidential recommendations used in applications for employment or for admission to any educational agency or institution, or information concerning honors awarded, except when the student waives, in writing, the privileges of examination.

B. Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, the student does not have access to confidential letters and statements of recommendation which were placed in the education records prior to January 1, 1975, if the letters or statements are used for purposes for which they were specifically intended they were specifically intended

These procedures apply to all persons for merly enrolled at Texas A&M University as well as to those currently enrolled.
