OFFICIAL NOTICE TO TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

In the past, certain information has been made public by Texas A&M University as a service to students, families and other interested individuals.

Under the "Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974," the following directory information may be made public unless the student desires to withhold all or any portion of it.

Student's name, address, telephone listing, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student.

Any student wishing to withhold any or all of this information should fill out, in person, the appropriate form, available to graduate students at the Graduate College and to undergraduate students at the Registrar's Office, no later than 5 p.m., Tuesday September 13, 1977.

Edwin H. Cooper, Dean Admissions and Records Texas A&M University

To comply with the requirements of the "Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974," Texas A&M University has adopted policies and procedures publicly periodically. These policies and procedures are intended to implement the requirements of this Act and to clarify these requirements for all members of the University student body, faculty, professional staff, parents and other interested parties.

. According to the Texas A&M Student Records System, records will be maintained in a variety of administrative offices as outlined below. The chief administrative offices as

II. Student Access to Education Records All students (and former students) of Texas A&M University have the right of access to their education records for the purpose of review, with the exception of those records prohibited by the Act (see Section III).

A. Students have the right to obtain copies of records relating to themselves at the expense of the student. The reproduction charge shall not exceed the actual cost to the University.

The University will respond to all requests for explanations and interpretations of records or information, provided the response is not in violation of this Act.

sponse is not in violation of this Act.

C. The Act provides that a student may waive his right of access to confidential letters of recommendation in the areas of admissions, job placement and receipt of awards. Students seeking employment through the University Placement Office may have signed such a waiver. Information concerning the status of such waivers may be obtained from the Director of Placement. Consent to release personally identifiable information, such as rank in class, personal conduct, grade point ratio, academic progress, etc., to non-authorized personnel (see Section IV) should be obtained from the student by individuals releasing such information.

Records Not Accessible to Students

A. Instructional, supervisory, and administrative personnel records and educational personnel records pertaining thereto in the sole possession of the author and not revealed to any person other than a substitute (i.e., grade books, notes of observation and notes for recollection purposes).

C. Employment records of a University employee who is not a student.

Authorized Non-Student Access to Student Records — Under the following circumstances and to the following people, educational records (or personally identifiable information within a record) may be released without the written consent of the student:

Officials, faculty and staff employed by Texas A&M University, if they have a "legitimate educational interest."

Officials of other educational institutions in which the student intends "or seeks" to enroll, provided the student is notified of what is being released and given a copy if Individuals needing this information in connection with a student's application for or receipt of, financial aid. E. State and local officials to whom state laws (in effect on or before November 19, 1974) require information to be reported.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Parents who certify a student is carried as a dependent for federal income tax purposes. This certification must be ascertained by the University office concerned. (It would include such items as grades, transcripts, financial aid and probation reports.)

V. Student Rights to Challenge Records

Students have the right to a hearing to challenge records and information directly relating to them. The challenge is restricted to inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate records and information. The following procedures shall be followed:

dures shall be followed:

A. Any student wishing to challenge records or information directly relating to him must notify the individual responsible for maintaining the record of the wish to challenge. The notice must be in writing and specifically identify the item challenged and the basis for the challenge. This written request must be filed in duplicate with the custodian of the challenged record.

B. All initial hearings will be informal and participants will be the custodian of the challenged records or information, the student and the author (if appropriate) of the material.

. If any of the participants (record custodian, student or author) are not satisfied with the results of the informal hearing, a formal hearing will be conducted under the pro-cedures adopted and published below:

The hearing will be conducted and the results decided within a reasonable period of time (seven business days) following the request for the hearing.

The decision must be rendered in writing to all interested parties within a reasonable period of time (seven business days) after the conclusion of the hear-

VI. Release of "Student Directory Information

Information on students, such as date and place of birth, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended, is defined and referred to in this Act as "student directory information" (this is a category of information and does not
