

Aggie notes

Softball team in state tourney

Texas A&M women's softball, coached by Bill Galloway, ended its regular fall season 23-4, four times to Texas Women's University. The Aggies travel to Dallas Friday for the TIAAW Championships where they are expected to finish second behind TWU. A&M received a first round bye in the tournament and will be the winner of the Trinity Vs. Stage game at 12 noon Friday.

The Aggies defeated Baylor in a 6-1 in the first game but had a 9-6 squeeze in the second game. The Aggies won the 10th inning, Texas pitcher Sami Evans led the team to a victory in the first game. Relieved freshman Shannon Hooton pitched the nightcap game after a 1-0 loss to lead the Aggies to a second win of the night.

The Texas A&M women's tennis team traveled to Baton Rouge Friday for the Louisiana State University Lady Tiger Invitational. First round double winners Kathleen Sissom and Susan Schilling were stopped in the second round by LSU. Other first round championship matches proved unsuccessful for the Aggies and the players moved into consolation. Maylyn Hooton and Judy Willard advanced to the semi-finals of consolation but were defeated by LSU. A pair from TCU defeated Ferol Hinkle and Mary Guerra.

In singles action, Hooton reached the consolation finals of flight one and Willard moved into the consolation finals of flight three. These rounds were played Sunday. Sissom (flight 2) and Guerra (flight 6) advanced to the semi-finals of consolation but were defeated. Schilling and Hinkle were both defeated in first round matches.

Texas A&M tied Clemson for 10th place in the Jim Corbett Classic golf tournament in Baton Rouge, La. last week. Oral Roberts was the team winner. Dave Ogrin led the Aggies with 70-68-73-211. The next action for the men will be in the Braswell Intercollegiate in Shreveport, La., Oct. 16-17.

Competition was tough for the Texas A&M women's golf team in the William H. Tucker Invitational in Albuquerque, New Mexico last week. The Aggies placed 12th behind teams that finished in the top 20 at nationals last season. Texas A&M's Kim Bauer placed fourth.

A&M sailors win first in regatta

Texas A&M University's sailing team won first place Saturday in the Bellard Invitational regatta. The team, coached by Greg Schertz, beat Rice University in Sea-We just, beating Tulane University, much to the surprise of the regatta officials. The Aggies were ranked nationally, and 11th in the state.

Upcoming events for the team include the Baylor regatta Oct. 21 and the Baldwin Wood regatta in New Orleans, Oct. 28-29.

Aggie bowlers lead conference

Texas A&M Men's and Women's Bowling team traveled to Dallas last weekend to compete in the first meet of their 1978-79 season. The Aggie men took a commanding lead in the conference, winning 57 and one half out of a possible 72 points. Hay Cuester took individual honors in the meet by averaging 204 for nine games in a high game of 267.

The Aggie women bowled themselves into a virtual tie for first with a very strong Texas Southern team. Joy Lloyd was high scorer averaging 163 and recording a high game of 185.

Charlie Daniels brings out the best in people.

On the new double live album, "Volunteer Jam III and IV," Charlie brings out his very talented friends: Wet Willie, Sea Level, Grinderswitch, The Winters Bros. Band, Willie Nelson, Mylon LeFevre, Bonnie Bramlett, Papa John Creach and from The Marshall Tucker Band, Toy Caldwell and Paul Riddle.

On Jan. 8, 1977, and Jan. 14, 1978, they all got together in the great volunteer state of Tennessee to provide their neighbors with much needed musical relief.

Their accomplishments are talked about wherever good citizens gather.
