A LEGAL CAREER FOR NON-LAWYERS

A legal career without law school can be yours as a Legal Assistant. Job opportunities are excellent in law firms, corporate legal departments, and banks. Legal Assistants are trained to do much of the work traditionally done by attorneys.

The Basic Legal Assistant Course begins January 29, 1979. A representative will be on campus Tuesday, November 14, 1978, at the Career Planning and Placement Center. Sign-ups for interviews are available now.

U.S. leading in Far East naval power

United Press International
TOKYO — U.S. Defense Secretary Harold Brown said Thursday that American naval power in the Far East still outdistances that of the Soviet Union despite the recent buildup of the Soviet fleet in the region.

Brown also said the United States plans to strengthen its Pacific forces in both number and quality.

The U.S. defense chief made the comments at a news conference following consultations with Defense Agency Director Gen. Shin Kanemaru. During the consultations Brown was told Tokyo plans to increase Japan's share of the cost of maintaining U.S. military bases in Japan by 30 percent next year.
