Marines at A&M celebrate 203rd

By CANDICE HILL
Battalion Reporter

The Marines have always responded to their call with courage, loyalty and leadership, said Col. B.R. Wilkinson, guest speaker at the Texas A&M University celebration of the 203rd birthday of the U.S. Marine Corps held at the Aggeland Inn Friday night.

Each Nov. 10, Marines across the nation celebrate the beginning of the Corps.

To begin the ceremony, Wilkinson and the color guard were presented. Then Staff Sgt. Robert E. McCann read the orders from the Thirteenth Commandant, John A. LeJeune. These orders, written in 1921, begin every birthday ceremony.

many because they give the regular Marine Corps should celebrate its birthday. They state that the Marine Corps is one of the most famous military organizations in the world's history.

McCann also read a letter congratulating the Marines on their accomplishments from the present Commandant, Louis H. Wilson.

A birthday cake was also presented. It is traditional that the three pieces be given to special people within the Marine Corps ranks.

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

A LEGAL CAREER FOR NON-LAWYERS

A legal career without law school can be yours as a Legal Assistant. Job opportunities are excellent in law firms, corporate legal departments, and banks. Legal Assistants are trained to do much of the work traditionally done by attorneys.

Three months of intensive training in courses taught by law professors and lawyers can give you the skills to interview witnesses, conduct legal research, prepare pleadings, draft transaction documents, and prepares cases for trial under the supervision of an attorney.

The Basic Legal Assistant Course begins January 29, 1979. A representative will be on campus Tuesday, November 14, 1978, at the Career Planning and Placement Center. Sign-ups for interviews are available now.
