Davis tape 'replay'

United Press International
HOUSTON — Prosecutors, intent that their best evidence leave a strong impression on jurors, today will replay videotapes of a fateful Aug. 20 meeting between Fort Worth millionaire T. Cullen Davis and FBI informant David McCrory.

By repeating the videotapes and accompanying soundtrack, the prosecution team hopes to make clear to the jury that Davis knew exactly what he was doing during his involvement with McCrory.

The 45-year-old industrialist is accused of conspiring, soliciting and attempting to have his divorce judge slain by pressuring McCrory, a friend of several years, to hire a professional killer.

The alleged scheme culminated with Davis' arrest as he left a Fort Worth restaurant and parking lot last summer.

Authorities said he had given McCrory $25,000 minutes earlier in exchange for fabricated evidence indicating District Judge Joe H. Eidson had been killed. The arrest occurred three days after McCrory went to the FBI with allegations that Davis wanted 15 persons, including his brother and adopted daughter, killed.

FBI agent Joseph Gray of Dallas will continue his testimony and narration of the videotapes today when the trial begins its fourth week of testimony. Gray was the agent who made the videotape, which shows Davis and McCrory in and out of each other's cars and peering inside the trunk of the millionaire's Cadillac.

Aggie Band extraordinaire

Freshman Cadet David Sergi humps it true to form with the Fightin' Texas Aggie Band which performed outstanding drills throughout the 1978 football season. The band performed what was perhaps the most sensational drill Saturday at the TCU game. Four sections of band members entered from each corner of the football field into a mid-air cross-through. One band member commented, "The applause from the crowd was so loud we couldn't hear ourselves play." The band's next and final season performance will be at half-time in Memorial Stadium Friday night at the Texas game.
