Grambling paper is delayed

United Press International
GRAMBLING, La. — Grambling State University administrators held up distribution of the student newspaper for three days and the editor claims the delay was prompted by stories about violent attacks on students.

University Vice President Kermit McMurray delayed delivery of Friday's edition of The Gramblinite until Monday, claiming that would be a better time for distribution because many students go home for the weekend. The weekly paper normally is distributed on Fridays.

Caesar Andrews, the student editor, said school officials asked that stories about the stabbing of one Grambling student and the killing of another be dropped. After the editors declined, administrators asked that the papers be withheld.

McMurray said he found the articles acceptable and did not intend to restrict the flow of news.

"I thought they did a good job," he said. "I didn't find anything wrong with them." He said a student committee was appointed to decide when the paper should be distributed in the future, calling it "an internal thing."

Pete Doshier, university journalism director and an adviser to the paper, said McMurray's statement about the delay was a surprise.

"This is the first I have heard of that," Doshier said. "In the past 20 years I have always told student journalists to 'Tell it like it is.'"

Dallas Cheerleaders try to stop movie

United Press International
NEW YORK — The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, Inc., sought a preliminary injunction in U.S. District Court in Manhattan to stop a showing of an allegedly pornographic film whose star is billed as an ex-Dallas cheerleader.

and the Pussy Cat Cinema, Ltd., at Broadway and 48th Street, where the plaintiff said the movie had been showing.

The suit said "the film portrays numerous explicit and lewd sexual acts, some of which were performed by the star" who was wearing a costume "virtually identical" to the ones worn by the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders.

The plaintiff charged that the film falsely represented that its star, Bambi Woods, was an ex-Dallas cheerleader.

The suit sought an injunction to stop the showing and distribution of the film and unspecified damages.

The Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders Inc., a subsidiary of the Dallas Cowboys Football Club, filed a suit aiming that the showing of the film, "Debbie Does Dallas," would cause it "irreparable harm."
The suit named the film's producer, School Day Films, address unknown, several "John Doe's" who were said to have made the picture
