

Big weekend for Aggie sports

It seemed like everyone at Texas A&M was involved in some type of sporting activity this past weekend. Here is just a small sample of some of the events that took place (clockwise from upper left): Hanna Werner performs on the balance beam in the A&M Invitational Gymnastics meet, in which the Aggies finished second behind LSU; Trey Schutz returns a serve as Texas A&M defeated St. Edwards University 9-0 at Briarwood Country Club; a member of the hosting Texas A&M volleyball club spikes on the San Antonio Lone Star Club in the Saturday Valentine's Day Tournament, in which the Aggies finished second; Jim Howard sets a new Oklahoma Track Classic record in the high jump as he clears 7-1 to place first in the event in Norman, Ok.

McDONALD'S INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

At University Drive

Now at Manor East Mall

"I-Spy" Participant Of The Week

Wrestling is lots of fun, as John Sweatt will tell you. During this A&M Wrestling Club workout, he is applying a 180 degree body twist while implanting Ed McAlarney's face in the floor. John should come by the I.M. office to pick up his "Be Our Guest" card redeemable for free food at McDonald's.

The Extra Act

Yes, ladies you are eligible to compete in wrestling. The wrestling club will be officiating at the tournament.

B Company Hustles Over A Batt

B Company "A" scrambled over A Battalion #2 in the Corps AB game. B Company started the game off with a quick try at the basket. After several attempts by both teams, B Company's dunkman, #12 Rick Hoelscher made a bucket. A Battalion followed with a dunk of its own by #30 Charlie Fields.

Play continued to be mainly offensive by both teams as Rick scored 4 more dunk shots for B Company "A" and A Batt was given a point on fouls. The score held for quite a while as both teams hustled the ball back and forth across the court. B Company's #11 Daryl Fitzgerald specialized in Harlem Globetrotter type feints, fakes, and antics. As the game turned to defensive play A Batt's #28 Mike McCartney scored.

Play quickened as B Company "A"'s #14 Curtis Donaldson and Daryl formed a twosome with Daryl passing to Curtis who dunked for 6 points. Rick got back in action dunking for B Company as A Batt's #25 Scott Beach got warmed-up on long shots for 6 points. With 2:53 left in the first half the score stood 17-18 for B Company.

The pace slowed down as nervousness set in with a great many overshots and clumsy plays began stalling the ball with ring-around-the-court passes as the score held at 40-34. After a last edged under the basket dunk by Rick, Daryl stole the ball from A Batt for more stalling tactics. The last points for both teams were due to fouls. Final score was a triumph for B Company 43-36.

Other team members were #29 Jeffrey Fischer, and #26 Randy Nelson for A Batt and #15 Jim Curry, #16 Jeff Presnal, and #13 Johnny Burns for B Company "A".

Guest Policy

Don't forget your ID! IM is enforcing the ID policy more strictly now to keep the facilities open to students, faculty, and staff and prevent use by unauthorized persons. Our facilities are limited and we want to keep them open for TAMU students, faculty, and staff, and restrict other use. Students are still permitted a guest, but if you are a student, please bring your ID!

The life of an I.D. checker is not all glamor. Every hour or so they have to face a crowd like this, so if you will bring your I.D. and have a little patience, we'll do our best from our end.
