Longhorns visit Saturday

Aggies ace NTSU 9-0

By KURT ABRAHAM
Battalion Reporter

Ignoring a shortage of courts, the din of construction equipment roaring in the background and a case of the blahs, the Texas A&M tennis team shot down North Texas State 9-0 Tuesday, while upping its season record to 10-5.

The conditions for concentrating on tennis were not the best while the Aggies were in the process of beating North Texas for the second time this year. First there was the lack of playable courts. With four courts being resurfaced, only three matches could be played at the same time. The result found players sitting around waiting for a place to play.

But Texas A&M Coach David Kent wasn't worried about shortage of space or construction noise from Kyle Field bothering his team's concentration.

"Frankly, we were not mentally up for this match, and I was afraid our guys would go out there and beat themselves by not thinking out their shots," said Kent. "But I'm glad we were still able to get the job done, especially in the fashion that we did."

What the Aggies did was to win all six singles matches in straight sets. The win by Reid Freeman at No. 2 seed was especially impressive as he beat Danny Campbell, 6-1, 6-0. It was Freeman's largest margin of victory this season, bettering his previous 6-2, 6-0 win against Southwestern Louisiana.

Freeman then teamed up with Alberto Jimenez in doubles action to beat David Cody and John Bracho, 6-1, 6-7, 6-2. While winning their fourth doubles match in a row, the Aggie pair provided Kent with his biggest scare of the day.

After winning the first set rather easily, the Aggie duo suddenly found themselves falling behind, losing a close second set and trailing 1-0 in the third. That brought out

"Basically Coach told us to slow down a little and think through our shots," said Jimenez. "I think we had gotten a little overconfident after the first set and then when we started to lose the second one, we tried to catch up in a hurry and it wasn't working. Coach Kent managed to settle us down."

Other doubles action found Texas A&M's Trey Schutz and Mike Moss winning the No. 2 seeded match, 6-2, 6-2, while third seeded Jim Grubert and Robin Baker won, 6-4, 6-4.

"I feel like we're showing gradual improvement with every match," said Kent in analyzing his team's performance. "Hopefully we'll build up enough momentum to carry us through the rest of the season."

On the other hand, North Texas Coach Rick Sorrells must be wondering what it takes for his team to win a match against Texas A&M.

"I really thought our guys were well, despite the score," Sorrells said. "But the score in many individual games went to our favor and our folks were just not getting over the top. In one match we lost five-of-seven three-all.

With another win behind him, Sorrells is cautiously optimistic his team's chances going into a match with Texas on Saturday are good.

"If we play with the same intensity that we did against Southwestern Louisiana, then I think we can win. What we really need again is to pack the stands with a raucous crowd. That would help a lot."

ranked Texas at home Saturday, 1:30 p.m., followed by another game with SMU on April 1.

Mikeska receives Aggie Heart Award

Russell Mikeska, senior tight end from Temple, became the 16th recipient of the Aggie Heart Award last Saturday night at Texas A&M's football banquet.

In making the presentation to Mikeska, Texas A&M President Dr. Jarvis Miller said, "What makes this award so special is the method of selection. Neither the coaches nor the fans have any voice in it. The winner is chosen by those who know him best — his teammates."

Other awards presented at the banquet included: Captains — Mikeska, offensive tackle Cody Risien from Cypress-Fairbanks, defensive tackle Eugene Sanders from New Orleans and defensive end Jacob Green of Houston Kashmere; All-SWC — Mikeska, Risien, Green, tailback Curtis Dickey of

Bryan and kicker Tony Franke of Ft. Worth Arlington Heights, Texas — Franklin, linebacker Mike Little of Las Vegas, linebacker Doug Carr of Las Vegas; ABC-TV award as outstanding offensive player in the SMU game to quarterback Mosley and Hall of Fame player and offensive player of the game to Dickey.
