

Thursday, March 29

- AGGIECON X: Cepheid Variable's annual science fiction convention will run today through Sunday. It will feature films, speakers, art displays, panel discussions and many other events.
- AGGIECON X: "Logan's Run." (1976) Michael York and Peter Ustinov star in this film which portrays life in the 23rd century, where no one is allowed to live past 30. At 7 p.m.
- AGGIECON X: "Barbarella." (1968) Jane Fonda stars as a detective in the year 40,000 who is assigned to locate a missing scientist. At 9:30 p.m.
- TENNIS: The women's team will compete in the UT-Austin Invitational Tournament in Austin through Saturday.

Friday, March 30

- AGGIECON X: "Rollerball." (1975) James Caan and John Houseman star in this study of the 21st century in which the world is dominated by six megacorporations, and the only outlet for aggression is Rollerball. At 7 p.m.
- AGGIECON X: "The Exorcist." (1975) Linda Blair and Lee J. Cobb star in this thriller about a 14-year-old girl who is possessed by a demon and experiences fear and anguish during the attempted exorcism. At 9:10 p.m.
- AGGIECON X: "Collisions." (1978) Lily Tomlin, Gilda Radner and Dan Aykroyd star in this combination of animation, song and dance in which the Earth is on a collision course with another planet, and it must be determined whether Earth is worth saving. At 11:15 p.m.
- AGGIECON X: "Countdown." James Caan and Robert Duval star in this story about a crash program to send an astronaut to the moon before the Russians do. The astronaut lands and must survive until the U.S. can send an Apollo to the moon. At 12:50 a.m.
- BASEBALL: The team hosts Baylor at 3 p.m. in Olsen Field.
- GYMNASTICS: The team will participate in the AIAW National Championships at Penn State University today and tomorrow.

Saturday, March 31

- AGGIECON X: "Stepford Wives." (1975) Katharine Ross and Paula Prentiss star as two women who try to raise the consciousness of women living in a suburb, and make some bizarre discoveries as to how the husbands make their wives so docile. At 7 p.m.

- AGGIECON X: "Flesh Gordon." (1974) A re-edited version of the original X-rated film, this depicts Flesh's struggle to regain the stolen power pasties and destroy the evil sex ray, which is devastating the Earth. At 9 p.m.
- AGGIECON X: "Day of the Dolphin." George C. Scott and Trish Van Devere investigate the behavior of dolphins, especially the possibility for interspecies communication with them. Success results in a conspiracy to use the dolphins to assassinate the President. At 10:20 p.m.
- AGGIECON X: "The Power." (1968) George Hamilton and Suzanne Pleshette star in this story about a strange psychokinetic force that can move objects, direct electricity and control or kill humans, and must be stopped before more are telepathically killed. At 12:10 a.m.
- BASEBALL: The team hosts Baylor for a doubleheader, which begins at 1 p.m. in Olsen Field.
- TENNIS: The team will host the University of Texas at 1:30 p.m.
- LAWN MOWERS: The Mechanized Agriculture Club will hold its annual Spring Lawnmower Clinic from 8 a.m. until dark in the Power and Machinery Lab.

Sunday, April 1

- FOLK DANCERS: The TAMU International Folkdancers are holding an open party from 7-10:30 p.m. in the MSC Ballroom. Visitors can learn traditional dances from all around the world.

Monday, April 2

- OCEANOGRAPHY: Jack Corliss, an oceanographer, will speak on thermal activity in the Galapagos Rift at 3:30 p.m. in Room 601 of Rudder Tower. He will discuss the biological, chemical, geological and oceanographic aspects of undersea hot springs.
- GOWNS: Caps and gowns become available today at the MSC Bookstore. They cost $8.

Tuesday, April 3

- AGGIE CINEMA: "Macbeth." (1972) Roman Polanski directed this film adaptation of Shakespeare's tale of murder, guilt and revenge. At 8 p.m. in Rudder Theater.
- TENNIS: The team will host Southern Methodist University at 1:30 p.m.
- PLANT SCIENCE: The club will hold a meeting at 7:30 p.m. in Room 103 of the Plant Sciences Building.

Dotsy

Texas recording artist Dotsy will try out her new single, "Try-in' To Satisfy You," April 7 when she comes to the Texas Hall of Fame in Bryan. She is one of country music's rising stars, and continues to satisfy her fans with her original style of music. Dotsy was born in Seguin and has been performing since she was 10 years old. Her recording career began in March of 1975 with a single, "Storms Never Last," and soon after she recorded her first album, "The Sweetest Thing."

FOCUS
THE BATTALION
COVER

When the Society for Creative Anachronisms holds a meeting, it is like a day out of the past. The group is dedicated to reliving events as they were so that the memory of them will not die out, and from the look of things they are doing a fine (and fun) job.

Focus is published every Thursday as an entertainment section of The Battalion.

Policy: Focus will accept any stories, drawings or photographs that are submitted for publication, although the decision whether to publish lies solely with the editor. Any pieces submitted, whether printed or not, will be returned upon request. Deadline is 5 p.m. the Friday before publication.

Contributing to this issue were: Lynn Blanco, Clay Cockrill, Scott Haring and Victor Sylvia.

EDITOR Gary Welch

FARMERS MARKET

Thursday Night Specials

These homemade dishes are made from our own family recipes. Each dinner is served with fresh hot garlic bread.

—OPEN SALAD BAR—

Spaghetti Dinner $2.65
Reg. 3.15

Lasagna Dinner $3.29
Reg. 3.79

POBOYS, PASTRIES, FRESH BREAD

Every Thursday Night 4-8

ADDED BONUS

Present this coupon and get a free beverage with your dinner.

Soft drinks - beer - wine
2700 Texas Ave. Bryan