FOCUS

THE BATTALION

COVER

He is not the one at the far right side of the picture, nor the one with his back turned, nor the next one over, who was President of the United States when this picture was taken. He is Mike Howard, and as a member of the Secret Service he helped protect John Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson and their families. He reflects on some of his experiences on page 5.

Focus is published every Thursday as an entertainment section of The Battalion.

Policy: Focus will accept any stories, drawings or photographs that are submitted for publication, although the decision whether to publish lies solely with the editor. Any pieces submitted, whether printed or not, will be returned upon request. Deadline is 5 p.m. the Friday before publication.

Michael Johnson

Music enthusiasts who appreciate classical, folk and jazz guitar will be pleased when Michael Johnson makes his Texas A&M debut on April 17 at 8:15 p.m. in Rudder Auditorium.

After 20 years in the music business, Johnson has finally achieved national recognition for his recent hit, "Bluer than Blue." He already has a following in the Midwest because of two of his albums,

"For All You Mad Musicians" and "Ain't Dis Da Life."

The backup group for Johnson will be Meisburg and Walters, who will open the show. They have released three albums, and are marked not only by their song-writing ability, but also by their good rapport with audiences.

Ticket prices are $3.50 for zone 1, $3 for zone 2 and $2.50 for zone 3.
