

Construction continues ...

Texas A&M University President Jarvis Miller told the Academic Council Tuesday that Kyle Field would be ready for the Oct. 13 football game against the University of Houston, despite numerous construction delays because of bad weather. The stadium, however, looks far from complete as seen below; piles of dirt and unfinished concrete pillars dot the construction site.

Low on gas? Flood victims try canoeing

WEST ALTON, Mo.— The flooding along the Missouri River hasn't stopped Ken and Karen Dickson from getting to their jobs as teachers. They now take a canoe to work.

"We canoe through people's yards," Mrs. Dickson said. "We can tell the water's going down now because today we could see the top of a car we paddled over yesterday."

The couple leaves a second car at the point where they reach dry land after leaving their home. They then drive the rest of the way to the Riverview School District in St. Louis County.

"We knew when we moved in here that it was a flood area," Mrs. Dickson added. "We deliberately chose a high spot for our house."

you can find really neat things hanging 'round the whse to put your pants, belts & jewelry on!
