ould not permit allegations of elec-on irregularities to cause a delay. The announcement was in reconse to demands by the Rev. dabaningi Sithole, who ran a poor cond in the balloting and now nts a commission of international ists to investigate what he called ge for de election "stagemanaged" to make luzorewa the winner.

Incorewa the winner.

The latest clash between fuzorewa, who won 51 of the 72 lack parliamentary seats, and ithole, who took only 12, came on eve of a showdown meeting of four members of the transitional rnment's ruling executive ides Muzorewa and Sithole, council includes tribal chief niah Chirau and Prime Minister Smith. Chirau won no seats and urged that a power transfer be elayed until peace is achieved. ng charge as the predictable com-laint of a loser.

The crisis was unfolding amid inications that Rhodesia's white inority was continuing to lose condence in the future.

Covernment statistics released day showed that Rhodesia had a et loss of 1,251 whites through migration in March compared with 52 the month before. So far this ear, Rhodesia has lost 2,916 whites rough emigration compared with

,579 in the same period in 1978.

"It is essential for the new government to proceed as quickly as possible, with the immediate objections." es of effecting a cease-fire, creatg peace, securing the lifting of de) sanctions and gaining internaonal recognition," Muzorewa said.
"Anyone who is unwilling to acpt the verdict of the people will not allowed to interfere with the ogress of the nation.' regress of the nation.

Earlier, Sithole warned that the country faces a prolonged period of iolence unless he gets his way.

Sithole charges also included the aim that certain candidates inoked spirit mediums in the elec-ons but he did not explain how this reated "irregulaties.

Uganda ifeline seized

United Press International NAIROBI, Kenya — Governnt troops have overrun the whole southeast Uganda including the portant town of Tororo and seized country's main economic lifeline the outside world, official radio ad news reports said today. Kenya news reports said Tanzain soldiers supporting the new overnment in Kampala captured roro Saturday and then swept to common border with Kenya, seizing the major crossing point of Malaba Sunday and another frontier ost at Busia today. Official Radio Uganda also re-

Official Radio Uganda also reported another column had ocpossible in the same region.

The reported victories meant forces had now cap-government forces had now capared Uganda's deep south and its outheast corner, including the lighway and railroad running from mpala east to Kenya which is the ountry's major export-import

The government needed to seize he road and railway to begin the mormous task of reconstruction, pected to take several years and est billions of dollars.

The reported victories would mean holdout troops of Idi Amin's rmy now were operating effectively only in northern areas of Uganda where two columns of government rees were also converging.

The Kenya news reports quoted anzanian officers arriving at the order in Busia as saying they had bottler in Busia as saying they had the little resistance in their offen-sive to capture Tororo, Mbale, Malaba and Busia although red good rom the area previously had said undreds and possibly thousands of ion civilians were being masacred by re-treating Amin soldiers.

French protest; serve fish-water in restaurants

United Press International STRASBOURG, France — Cusmers in restaurants in the Haut thin district often find on their taoles jugs of tap water with frogs or red fish swimming around. Restaurant owners serve customers tap water in this way to protest an edict of the authorities in the wine growing Alsacian area to put ordinary water on dining room taples and not to demand that cusmers buy wine or mineral water. "We don't appreciate the au-We don't appreciate thorities' attempt to teach us our trade," a restaurateur said.
